MOSCOW, April 12.—Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov's brusque rejection of French appeals for the integration of the coal-rich Saarland was believed to be driving France toward merging her occupation zones with those of her Western allies.

Up to now, France has refused to join the merger in Western Germany for fear of hardening the

PA NEWC OBSERVES

The city street cleaner has moved the city streets that area more passable. Work was progressing on Wabash avenue on Friday afternoon.

On the familiar army amphibious "ducks" that passed through the city during the war years, has returned to New Castle to make its home here. Pa Newc found workmen repairing one of the vehicles in the Moravia street section of the city on Friday afternoon.

Maintenance men of the State Highway Department are engaged in mending a few spots in the pavement of East Washington street out on the East Side. A few weak places developed in the amesite during the winter months and if allowed to remain, would have turned into larger holes.

Dear Pa Newc:
I see by the Friday night's paper that a contract has been let for new street signs. This brings to mind a humorous street sign at the corner of East Washington and Croton which reads "East Washington St." I use the Cascade Street bus and it gives me a kick every time I pass it. How about it? Ever see it?

A Subscriber.
Local rivers have receded considerably the past few days. Pa Newc observes. The channels present a much cleaner appearance than previous to the high water condition that existed.

Pennsylvanians were asked by Gov. James H. Duff to observe "National Sunday School Week" beginning tomorrow. "It is to be hoped that Sunday school enrollments throughout the Commonwealth will be greatly increased by local 'Go to Sunday School' campaigns put on by all churches, civic and community organizations during this special week and then continued each week of the year," Duff said.

Hikers will be out in numbers tomorrow if pleasant weather prevails. Many fishermen expect to journey along the streams to pick out their spots for April 15, when the trout season opens.

Motorist traveling in the north portion of the state report snow still clinging to the hillsides in the vicinity of Erie. Despite the warm spell, the drifts, which reached great proportions during the last few months, still are not all completely melted.

Start Distribution Of Jap Reparations

By JOHN A. REICHMANN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, April 12.—The United States today is determined to proceed with the distribution of Japanese reparations without awaiting the formal approval of other powers which participated in the Far Eastern war.

Recently the State Department instructed Gen. Douglas MacArthur, supreme commander in the Far Eastern area, to start distribution of Japanese reparations to the powers most immediately involved.

To Distribute Vessels
The department announced yesterday that 140 Japanese combat vessels are to be distributed soon among the United States, the United Kingdom, Russia and China.

This distribution was decided on at the "Three Power" Foreign Ministers Conference in Moscow in the fall of 1943. It would award to the major powers participating in the war against Japan, a share in Japanese war vessels of destroyer size or less.

The larger vessels are to be scrapped.

In the category of "destroyer size or less," 239 vessels are included. But, under the agreement, MacArthur is to be entitled to use these

President Flies To Missouri To See His Mother

Makes Trip On Start Of Third Year As President —To Speak Today

WASHINGTON, April 12.—(INS)—President Truman left Washington National Airport at 8:10 a. m. today for Missouri to spend the week-end with his 94-year-old mother, Mrs. Martha Truman, who is recovering from a broken hip.

The president arrived at the airport 15 minutes early and chatted with reporters and photographers before going aboard the "Sacred Cow".

Starts Third Year
He said he was feeling fine at the beginning of his third year in office.

Mr. Truman commented that crises appear to be about as numerous as when he took office.

Kenneth Daugherty, a nephew of Brig. Gen. Harry Vaughn, the president's military aide, accompanied Mr. Truman on the trip.

Mr. Truman plans to return to Washington in time for dinner Sunday evening.

The president has not seen his mother for more than a month. The White House reported her condition as "fairly good."

He is taking advantage of the week-end to pay another visit to the elderly Mrs. Truman because it seems unlikely that he will be able to go there on Mothers' Day.

To Make Radio Speech
Mr. Truman will fly directly to his mother's home at Grandview, Mo. He will visit with her in the early afternoon before motoring in to Kansas City, where he will make a radio tribute to the late President Roosevelt at 4:40 p. m. EST.

The Chief Executive will remain overnight in Kansas City, possibly visiting friends in Independence, his home.

He will visit with his mother again Sunday morning before taking off after lunch for the return flight to Washington.

New York City Population Will Soon Be 7,835,000

NEW YORK, April 12.—(INS)—The health department predicted today that the population of New York will be 7,835,000 by July 1.

They subtracted the 1930 federal census for the city from the 1940 total to arrive at an annual rate of increase of 52,500. To this they added a second figure obtained by subtracting the average deaths from the greatly increased average births.

The department has never been more than 2 percent off in its population predictions.

First Break In Telephone Strike

Report Approximately 4,500 New York State Plant Workers Return To Jobs

ALBANY, N. Y., April 12.—(INS)—Approximately 4,500 Empire State telephone plant workers returned to their jobs today in the first break in the nationwide telephone strike.

The workers returned pending arbitration of their wage demands. Henry Mayer, attorney for fifteen striking unions denounced their action.

Known Dead In Tornado Now Placed At 133

ST. LOUIS, April 12.—(INS)—Latest reports to the Red Cross midwestern branch in St. Louis today placed the known dead in last Wednesday's Oklahoma-Texas tornado at 133 persons.

The Red Cross said 86 of the fatalities occurred at Woodward, Okla., where approximately 800 other persons were injured.

Other casualty figures are:
Higgins, Tex., 34 known dead and 232 injured.

Clazier, Tex., 13 known dead and 48 injured.

Whitehorse, Okla., 30 injured.

Gray County, Okla., three injured.

'Bo' McMillin Is Heard By Throng Consistory Members And Guests Enjoy Talk By Noted Grid Star And Coach

OVER 2,000 AT STAG NIGHT EVENT

Over 2,000 members of the Valley of New Castle Consistory and their guests from the blue lodges attended the annual stag night party held in the Cathedral Friday evening.

The speaker of the evening was Alvin N. "Bo" McMillin, grid coach at Indiana university, whose team captured the Big Ten title in 1945, and who was named the "coach of the year" for this feat.

Mr. McMillin was introduced by Sid Lockley, who was on the track and basketball squads at Geneva college, which were coached by McMillin.

Tells Of Incidents
McMillin told a number of humorous incidents which have happened during his career as a coach, and concluded his talk by stating that the Valley of New Castle Consistory, if they could capture the spirit and enthusiasm shown by the boys on football squads throughout the nation, could accomplish anything they set out to do.

Following his talk, the members repaired to the dining room, where fish dinner was enjoyed, served buffet style. Entertainment was furnished by DeLace Cole and his Correlated Corn Crackers.

As the crowd gathered, a series of sports films were shown in the Cathedral auditorium.

Flood Threats In Mississippi River Delta Area

NEW ORLEANS, April 12.—(INS)—A number of small streams threatened to overflow their banks in the Mississippi River delta today, as the weather bureau predicted more scattered rain for Louisiana and Mississippi and additional winds in the Gulf Coast region.

The two-state territory suffered damage yesterday when tornadoic winds lashed northeastern Louisiana and heavy rainfall in Mississippi caused tributaries of the Yazoo river to rise menacingly.

Twenty-five families in lowlands near Greenwood, Miss., were evacuated as the Pelucia creek burst its bank, sending several feet of flood waters over a large area. The waters receded quickly, but a prediction of more rain today in Mississippi brought threats of new flood dangers.

SUICIDE IS SUCCESSFUL
WILKES-BARRE, Pa., April 12.—(INS)—John Kotch, 63, of Plymouth, died last night, police said, from wounds suffered when he plunged a knife into his abdomen on March 23. Kotch was found in his home five days after the attempt. He succumbed in Wyoming Valley Homeopathic Hospital.

Vishinsky Sees One Real Result Of Moscow Parley

By KINGSBURY SMITH
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

MOSCOW, April 12.—(INS)—Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky hailed at least one "positive result" of the Big Four conference of foreign ministers today, but insisted Russia would stand firm on her demand for German reparations from current production.

Vishinsky said the "positive result" was the offer of United States Secretary of State Marshall to step up German production to an extent guaranteeing the Soviet Union a fraction of the 10 billion dollars in German reparations she has demanded.

Marshall conditioned his offer upon Russian acceptance of the American plan for a 40-year four-power treaty against German aggression and on reduction of the reparations demand to a "reasonable figure."

Positive Result
The Soviet chief deputy received news correspondents covering the Big Four meeting and said:

"Secretary Marshall's willingness to

Kills Wife As She Alights From Bus In Greensburg, Pa.

GREENSBURG, Pa., April 12.—(INS)—State and City police today intensified a widespread search for Dominick Daverse, 37, of Greensburg, who, they charged, followed his former wife off a bus last midnight and shot her to death.

The wife, Theresa Pedicone Daverse, 29, mother of four, died almost instantly from two bullet wounds in the abdomen and one in the neck.

The shooting occurred in downtown Greensburg with the horrified bus passengers as witnesses.

One unidentified witness said Daverse put the gun to his head and pulled the trigger, but the gun failed to fire. Clarence W. Young, the bus driver and a friend of Daverse, said he heard six shots, and then heard the hammer click on an empty chamber.

Witnesses said Daverse walked calmly away after the shooting.

Mrs. Daverse obtained a divorce last May.

Ceremonies Will Honor Second Anniversary Of Roosevelt's Death

HYDE PARK, N. Y., April 12.—Ceremonies will be held at Hyde Park today observing the second anniversary of the death of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Highlighting the observance will be a fifteen minute radio program at 4:30 p. m. (EST) during which President Truman will speak from Kansas City. The broadcast will be carried by the National Broadcasting Co., the American Broadcasting Company and the Mutual Broadcasting System.

School Teachers Salary Increases Again Discussed

State Educational Association Officer Talks To Teachers Friday Afternoon

PER CAPITA TAX LEVY IS SUGGESTED

Unless a per capita tax is levied in New Castle, the possibilities of any further increases in public school teachers' salaries are slim this year, Dr. A. Clair Moser, assistant executive secretary of the Pennsylvania State Education Association, told New Castle teachers Friday.

The teachers were addressed by Dr. Moser in the senior high school at the invitation of the New Castle chapter of the PSEA, following meetings of the teachers with the budget committee of the school board. The board has offered a single salary schedule, a cost-of-living bonus of $300 to each teacher ($110 over the current year), and a $200 bonus to holders of master's degrees.

Ask For More
The teachers asked for further increases upon the grounds that the budget would permit such increases if certain capital outlay projects were passed at this time.

The board's reply was that the bleacher seats at the Taggart stadium were a necessity due to the condition of the present wooden bleachers. In the case of the Mahoning school the board said the boilers there must be replaced as they had been condemned for four years.

Dr. Moser went over each of the accounts in the estimated receipts and expenditures of the budget and finally said that he could find nothing out of the way with the budget. "If the boilers in that school have been condemned for four years, don't you think it's time to replace them?" asked he. "Surely nobody wants an explosion like the one in Texas several years ago."

Replace Or Tear Down
"As to the bleacher seats, the board says they are unsafe. Certainly nobody wants a serious accident out there. Of course, the board

Work Starts On B. And O. Project

Expect That Operations Will Be In Full Swing On New Rest House In Month

Preliminary work has been started on the construction of the new $130,000 rest house and restaurant for employees of the New Castle Terminal on East Cherry street, engineers having begun the task of laying out lines for the new building on Friday.

Actual construction work, however, is not expected to get started for about a month, it was stated by local officials of the railroad. When the job is gotten underway, it will be rushed to completion as rapidly as possible.

In addition to the rest house for crews which lay over here, which building will also contain the restaurant, work is to be started soon on a new coal dock, around $250,000 having been allocated for the two projects.

No Settlement Of Phone Strike Tieup Is Near

By PHILLIPS J. PECK
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Telephone Union President Joseph A. Beirne declared today that the week-old national phone strike is "gaining momentum" with no immediate prospects of settlement.

Beirne's statement was made as the AT&T withdrew at midnight last night its "final offer" for settlement of the Long Lines phase of the communications tieup.

The company proposal was rejected by the 49-member policy committee of the National Federation of Telephone Workers which is directing the fight of 300,000 striking AT&T and Bell System employees for a $12-a-week pay boost.

Await Schwellenbach Reply
Beirne commented:

"Our strike is gaining momentum. 'No one has done anything or said anything to indicate the possibility of a settlement in the week since it started.'"

The union leader said the NPTW, whose members have lost an estimated 100,000 calls a day.

Luciano Jailed At Genoa, Italy

GENOA, Italy, April 12.—(INS)—Charles (Lucky) Luciano was clapped behind the familiar bars of a jail cell today on his arrival from Cuba aboard the Turkish steamer Bakir.

The one-time New York vice czar, who skipped out of Italy for a brief holiday in Cuba—the repercussions of which still are being felt in New York, Hollywood, Rome and Genoa—was taken off the little ship five miles outside Genoa Harbor and hauled into port aboard a tender.

Brave Girl Routs Burglar From Home

PHILADELPHIA, April 12.—(INS)—Somewhere in Philadelphia today a burglar nursed a lump on the head inflicted by the steady right arm of 20-year-old Barbara Smith. Ignoring the old theory that girls can't throw straight, Barbara tossed a shoe and a chair at the intruder as he crept downstairs in her home. He fled with an aching noggin—and clothes worth $50.

Strike-Curbing Measure To Reach House For Action After Committee Vote Today

FAR-REACHING PROVISIONS IN BILL

(BULLETIN)

WASHINGTON, April 12.—(INS)—The House Labor committee today formally approved drastic new labor legislation outlawing the closed shop, empowering the government to halt strikes in certain key industries, and reducing unions to a "company level."

The vote was 18 to 4. Three Democrats joined all 15 Republicans on the committee in voting to report out the bill, which will be called up in the House Tuesday for debate with passage slated Thursday or Friday.

(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, April 12.—The house labor committee takes a final vote today on drastic new labor legislation outlawing both the closed shop and industry-wide bargaining, and empowering the government to halt strikes in certain key industries.

Rep. Hartley (R. N. J., committee chairman) forecast overwhelming approval for the measure with only five or six of the 25 members voting against it.

House passage appears assured, the bill already having received the blessing of the Republican leadership. Debate will open Tuesday, with a final house vote Thursday or Friday.

Family Rushing Tot To Hospital Said Lost On Way

EUGENE, Ore., April 12.—(INS)—Puzzled police were patrolling the highway from Roseburg to Eugene today as a scheduled mercy flight to remove a safety pin from a year-old infant ended with the baby lost somewhere along the way.

A nonstop United Airlines Los Angeles-Portland plane halted at Eugene for more than an hour yesterday, waiting to rush the stricken boy to a throat specialist in Portland. However, the car carrying Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Mankif from Roseburg failed to arrive.

Police thought that the excited parents may have driven south to the Medford airport instead of north to Eugene. Roseburg is about 80 miles from either city.

Merey hospital in Roseburg said the Mankifs left with the child and did not return.

RAILROAD CANCELS LAY-OFF PLANS AS COAL OUTPUT JUMPS

CLEVELAND, April 12.—(INS)—The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad announced today that coal production has increased sufficiently to avoid laying off maintenance personnel.

President R. J. Bowman had posted notices yesterday that the C & O might be forced to furlough employees as well as operating employees because of the coal mining situation.

He said that operating employees idled by the mine shutdown would be returned to work as coal production returns to normal.

Of the 295 mines normally served by the C & O, only 87 were operating Wednesday but that figure already has jumped to more than 160.

JOEL S. MCKEE

Y. M. C. A. executive committee for the World Youth Fund campaign announced today that Joel S. McKee, vice-president and cashier of the First National Bank of Lawrence county, has been named general chairman of the local effort.

In accepting the position of leader in this worthy endeavor, Mr. McKee stated:

"This campaign is for a most sacred cause, one which we can't pass off as trivial. The opportunity to render service and to teach democratic principles will not be given to us again on such a large scale. If we stand aside and allow other doctrines to take root in these prostrate nations, we have forfeited one of our greatest chances to further the cause of freedom, democracy and the Christian religion."

Rallies Citizens
Mr. McKee urged the citizens of New Castle, who have been so responsive in the past, and who have shown outstanding civic, state and national pride, to respond to this plea for help from Y.M.C.A. workers in ravaged countries all over the globe.

It is the aim of the campaign to rebuild 105 buildings in 17 nations where the "Y" movement flourished prior to the war. It is also planned to aid 600 secretaries and their families who suffered immeasurably under the iron hand of aggressor nations during the conflict. And lastly, it is the purpose of the campaign to rekindle the flame of Christian and democratic principles for the youth of the world.

Plan To Canvass City In Campaign For Cancer Fund

A meeting of the Lawrence County Unit of the American Cancer society was held Friday afternoon in the office of Dr. Mary Baker Davis, president of the local organization.

Harold Burns, of New Wilmington, and John R. Preston, of New Castle, co-chairman for the fund drive, complete the final allotting of various sections of the city to civic organizations and service clubs participating in the drive. The proposed method of solicitation is a house-to-house canvass of the city and it is hoped the entire solicitation will be made throughout the county.

Wednesday, April 23, has been named officially as drive-day when $13,500, quota for Lawrence county, is expected to be raised in the campaign. Local headquarters are located in the Pennsylvania Power building on the public square.

START DISTRIBUTION OF JAP REPARATIONS

for occupational purposes. At present he has decided that 140 are no longer needed.

Will Draw Lots
Because there have been no talks on the disposition of Japanese reparations, a novel procedure has been adopted for the distribution of the 140 freed vessels.

They will be divided into lots and the participating nations will hold a drawing for the lot which it will get. Thereafter, the vessels will be delivered in groups to any Far Eastern port designated by the recipient nation. They will be manned by Japanese crews until delivery.

Some similar procedure is expected to be followed later when MacArthur is faced with the task of distributing other reparations to China, the Philippines, Netherlands and the United Kingdom.

Significantly, the Soviet Union has been left out of this preliminary distribution, presumably because of the dispute between Moscow and the Western Powers over Russian removal of Japanese industrial equipment from Manchuria and Korea.

Moscow has contended that properties seized by it in those two areas are war booty. The United States maintains they are reparations and should have been left in place until equitably distributed among those powers having the greatest claims to damage from Japan.

mated thirteen million dollars in wages in the walkout, would not decide its next move until it heard from Secretary of Labor Lewis B. Schwellenbach on the union's latest proposal.

The NFWT suggested to Schwellenbach yesterday that he call a public meeting of government, AT&T and NFWT leaders to seek peaceful negotiation of the controversy.

The union proposes to lay its case before President Truman if it cannot get such a parity. Asked how long he would wait for Schwellenbach's reply, Beltrine said:

"A reasonable time. How long is that?"

Beltrine issued his pessimistic appraisal of the situation after a special meeting of the NFWT governing body.

tures of what is probably the most far-reaching labor legislation considered by congress since enactment of the Wagner act.

All closed shops requiring employers to hire only union members are banned, existing closed shops six months after the bill becomes law.

The union shop, where non-union employees must join a labor organization, is permitted, as is maintenance of membership, a milder form of union security.

Strikes Are Delayed
Practically no strikes may be called until parties to a dispute have exhausted collective bargaining machinery specified in the bill. Violations are subject to drastic penalties, involving possible loss of bargaining rights, stiff fines and jail sentences.

The National Labor Relations Board is abolished, and replaced by a three-member labor-management relations board. Its administrative functions are placed in the hands of a $15,000-a-year administrator appointed by the president.

The federal government is authorized to obtain a court injunction in the event of a strike that against the transportation industry, communication services and public utilities. A "cooling off" period of approximately 72 days is then provided before a strike can be called.

Subject To Anti-Trust Laws
Union are made subject to the provisions of the federal anti-trust laws.

Welfare funds, such as that established by the government for the coal industry, are banned. No welfare fund operated jointly by management and labor would be permitted.

The U. S. conciliation service is made an independent body, being removed from the jurisdiction of the labor department.

No union may be certified as a bargaining agent if any of its officers are communists or "can reasonably be regarded" as such. Unions are empowered to expel communists, but employers can continue to employ them.

The provisions of the anti-Petrillo bill are extended to all industries, including a prohibition against "featherbedding" or made work.

SOVIET OPPOSES WESTERN POWERS ON SAAR ISSUE

cleavage between the other two powers and the Soviet Union.

Three Power Lineup Seen
But a definite line-up of the three Western powers appeared today as a result of Soviet refusal to join the United States and Britain in supporting French demands for the Saar.

Economic experts saw little possibility of France getting the coal she so desperately needs without this region.

And already there is talk of "unilateral action" in tying the Saar economically with France regardless of Soviet opposition.

Such a development would increase the economic interdependence of the three Western zones and make eventual unification of Germany increasingly remote.

For Red Propaganda
The Russians would be expected to make the most of such a move in their propaganda to the German people.

They already are trying to impress the Germans with Soviet opposition to the partitioning of Germany. And development of the Saar issue would add fuel to their fire.

The Russians were believed to consider this propaganda necessary to offset the 40 thousand square miles of Eastern Germany that they have given to Poland.

At yesterday's session, Molotov almost ignored the appeal of French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault, and pressed instead for Russian participation in control of the Ruhr's industrial output.

Troops In Vital Battle In North Paraguay Sector

ASUNCION, April 12.—(INS)—Thirty thousand government and rebel troops clashed today in the Ypane river territory of northern Paraguay in what was expected to develop into the decisive battle of the Paraguayan civil war.

Asuncion, the capital, still lay under a technical state of siege although the nearest insurgent troops were reported 186 miles distant.

Government forces in the north were said to have a 2 to 1 superiority in men, and to control the majority of combat aviation and all heavy arms equipment.

President Higinio Morinigo declared that peace could only be founded upon the "complete surrender" of responsible insurgent military leaders.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mrs. Sara Linton, 412 Epworth street, is spending a few days with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Linton of Sharon.

Mrs. Charles Sell and daughters, Mary Martha and Della Grace have returned to their home in Akron, after visiting with Mrs. Mary E. Collins, 411 Epworth street.

Mrs. Ethel Whitehouse, 1120 Lorain avenue, has returned to her home from the Jameson Memorial Hospital, where she has been confined for the past few days. Her condition remains unchanged.

Mrs. Howard Duff, 315 North Mercer street, has returned from a visit to California. Mrs. Duff went by rail the central route and returned via the Southern route. En route home, she went through the tornado district.

Mrs. L. A. Pearsall, Sr., Mrs. Benj. E. Hartland, Mrs. L. A. Pearsall, Jr., and son Lewis have arrived in California for a months visit. While there they will visit with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stritz and son Charles, former residents of New Castle.

SCHOOL TEACHERS SALARY INCREASES AGAIN DISCUSSED

could tear the present bleachers down and let the customers stand, or it could close the stadium altogether. But I am given to understand that New Castle is one city where the football tail wags the educational dog.

"You people are in the bottom bracket in salaries," said Mr. Moser. "Your salaries should be higher, but I can see no possibility of further increases in the present budget. There is a little cushioning in it of course, but there should be a little in every budget. Your real estate tax here is up to the limit of 20 mills now."

"What have you done to sell the people of New Castle a bill of goods in your own behalf? Have you tried to show the importance of your work?"

Concluding his talk Dr. Moser reiterated his statement that a per capita tax was the only solution to the problem if increased salaries are to be given.

Following the meeting there were a number of informal discussions among groups and it seems possible that the board will be asked to levy a per capita tax of perhaps $3. This it is estimated would provide revenues sufficient to pay each teacher an additional $200.

consider reparations out of current German production is a positive result for us and a positive result for progress of the conference.

"An agreement without reparations would be like a man without a heart."

"Those who look upon our country with eyes not closed by an 'iron curtain' and see our damage, understand our demands for just compensation from Germany."

Vishinsky said the Marshall proposal required "further clarification."

Of the whole conference itself and the difficulties being encountered in reaching agreements, Vishinsky said:

"It is due either to a lack of understanding or a lack of common desire."

TAXI STRIKE CONTINUES

PITTSBURGH, April 12.—(INS)—Pittsburghers, without taxicab service since Friday morning, will have to struggle along with streetcars at least until after Monday, due to a strike of mechanics of the Yellow Cab Co.

Paul Houston, president of the firm, today said there would be no further negotiations over the weekend in the mechanics' demands for a 45-cents-an-hour wage increase. More than 900 cab drivers have refused to cross the mechanics' picket lines at garages the past two days.

Parks on the public square have been seeded with grass and pedestrians are requested to not walk on the grass.

IN MEMORIAM

This poem is written in loving memory of my grandfather, George Reed Stevenson, who passed away one year ago, April 13, 1946. He was all that a father could be and more.

Ruth Gilliam Pappas

A REVERIE
In the glooming as I sit here,
At the close of a busy day,
My thoughts are of you, Pappaw dear,
For you seem not far away.

Outside your fruit trees are blooming,
Waiting their fragrance afar,
In their young face is looming,
For the work of your hands they are.

Birds in the tree tops are nesting
In boxes you built long ago,
Your hands were never resting
As you walked o'er your place to and fro.

The goat is grazing peacefully
In fields that you have trod,
Your name engraved seems to be
Upon the verdant, grassy sod.

Your pet duck, Jumbo, follows at my feet,
As to the barn I walk,
He seems puzzled that you he doesn't meet,
As he quacks to speak in his duck talk.

One year has passed since you've gone,
A brother of the other world to be,
But an epitome of your life lingers on,
Which is as a benediction to me.

HOME ACCIDENT TOLL

It's no detraction from the dangers of the atom bomb to point out, as General Groves did the other day when nine manufacturers were honored in New York for developing home safety devices, that accidents in the home exact a greater toll every two years in dead and injured than the atomic bombs inflicted on the Japanese.

The ironic thing is that, while the atomic bomb with all its drama presents an almost insoluble problem, the daily attrition in the home which costs so fearfully could be remedied almost overnight by plain common sense caution. The home, from the standpoint of accidents, is the most dangerous spot in the world. More death result there from carelessness than in any other kind of human establishment.

General Groves feels that the blame for this can be placed in order on women who worry too much about the looks of household items and not enough about safety; on the men who don't worry at all about home safety, and least on the children who must depend upon their parents and the schools for safety guidance. In any case, parents play a key role.

It's up to the schools and safety councils to get this message across to parents in greater degree than ever before, and it's up to manufacturers to keep up their good work of developing such safety equipment as the asbestos ironing board cover, the driveway marker, the plastic safety cap, and other items that won this year's awards. It's in the home, seemingly trifling factors that safety lies.

PHILIPPINE BASES

The action has received less attention in the news columns than it deserved, but the great and vastly improved air base of Clark Field, 60 miles north of Manila in Luzon, has been entrusted by the Philippines to the U. S. Army. Away under the bulge of China, 1,400 miles west of Guam, this airfield in a friendly nation will be the Army's strategic police station for the Southwest Pacific.

It is no accident that the U. S. Navy has also selected the Philippines for a primary base in the far-western Pacific—the present $100,000,000 installation at the lower tip of Samar Island, one of the Visayan group of the central Philippines.

It occupies this narrow peninsula between the Pacific Ocean and Leyte Gulf, just across from Leyte Island, scene of the first landings in October, 1944. As Samar is open to the ocean, ships are not compelled to pass through narrow waters between islands, as in approaching Manila Bay on the western side of Luzon Island.

The big naval base at Samar includes facilities of an airfield where, during the war, the Navy repaired carrier planes, fanned out long-range sea searches, and offered anti-aircraft training for fleet gunners. Among other Samar installations are a large fleet hospital and weather facilities for the accurate tracking of typhoons.

Climate is that of the sea-level tropics, hot and humid except for cooling breezes on the ocean side. As a place to live, Clark Field is better on its 500-foot elevation away from jungles and in its proximity to Manila.

MORE THAN 5,000,000

Latest industry estimates from Detroit are that 5,500,000 automobiles and trucks will be rolled off the assembly lines this year. Barring unforeseen work stoppages and materials shortages, that is.

Executives of major automobile manufacturers are optimistic that there will be no work stoppages this year due to strikes, and that materials shortages will ease by midyear. Approximately 1,250,000 vehicles were manufactured in the first quarter of this year, and estimates are that the second quarter output will be equal or greater, with acceleration of production late in the summer.

Only a startling and unfavorable change in demand for new cars could cause shutdowns for model changeovers before the final weeks of the year, according to news from Detroit. A few of the minor manufacturers will bring out so-called new models from time to time, but the large companies expect no let-up in demand for their products.

Nor is there confirmation of belief in some quarters that when the Big Three make major style changes they will become freakish. These rumors obviously stemmed from the appearance on the roads of some "postwar" models, turned out by smaller manufacturers, that were innovations, to say the least.

The number of bona fide new car orders on dealers' books is a mystery. Tabulation seems to reveal 5,000,000, but some prospective buyers placed orders with as many as a dozen dealers, hoping one of them would come through. Others who ordered cars when prices were lower find acceptance financially burdensome. But there is no doubt that there is still great demand for new cars.

Washington's cherry trees, now in bloom, are attracting thousands. Occasionally someone does go there who doesn't want something out of the Treasury.

It is true that a faint heart never wins a fair lady unless the lady herself decides she ought to be won.

Washington Calling

By Marquis Childs

Reasonable Labor Legislation Needed

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Two nationwide strikes are in progress as the Senate Labor committee sits down to try to agree on legislation that will bring peace in industry. The coal miners and the telephone workers are out, and there are angry rumblings that indicate trouble in other sectors.

This is a convenient background for those in the Senate and the House who want to go all the way and put organized labor into a legal squirrel-cage. It follows a long period in which strikes were at a minimum.

Sharp Controversy
Within the Senate committee there is a sharp controversy over the kind of bill to be finally reported to the Senate. Chairman Robert A. Taft favors an omnibus bill that, as one senator put it, would contain everything including the kitchen sink.

A faction in the committee represented by Sen. Wayne Morse of Oregon and Sen. Lister Hill of Alabama believes that separate proposals covering separate phases of labor legislation should be put into separate bills. This would make it possible, Morse has argued in closed committee session, to get agreement on a minimum of legislation to correct the worst abuses of labor's recently acquired power. There is just a possibility that a majority of the committee may in the end take this line and insist on separate bills.

But even if this should be the outcome, it will have no bearing on the action the Senate will take. When the Senate goes down to business and resolves itself into a committee of the whole to adopt labor legislation, Taft will have the votes to put over his catch-all containing a long series of restrictions.

Draft Being Considered
The draft the committee is now considering limits industry-wide bargaining. It outlaws the closed shop and limits the union shop. It excludes foremen from collective bargaining. At the same time, of course, it corrects the inequities in the Wagner Labor Relations act and outlaws jurisdictional strikes and the secondary boycott, changes which Morse and the other moderates on the committee approve.

You do not have to look very hard to see the politics behind Taft's maneuver. If the catch-all bill goes to the White House, President Truman could be expected to veto it. It will contain prohibitions that go much further than he cares to go. The President does not have the privilege of vetoing separate items in any measure. He must approve the whole thing or send it back to Congress without his approval. It is highly doubtful if there would be sufficient votes to pass the catch-all bill over a veto.

May Be No Legislation
Under such a course, the strong likelihood is that no labor legislation will come out of this Congress. Republicans will be able to put the blame on Mr. Truman. They can argue in the 1948 campaign that the only way to get adequate labor legislation is to put a Republican president in the White House.

WEDDING INVITATIONS

"Give me, please, details of wedding invitations—not the form, which I already know, but the kind of paper, style, size, etc., and when they should be mailed."

Answer: Formal wedding invitations and announcements are engraved in black on plain white paper, folded into a double sheet. Usually the size is 5 1/2 by 8 1/2. English script is the most popular style of engraving, although any of the accepted types may be used. All ornate engraving and stationery are avoided by people of taste. Conventional forms should be adhered to.

At the top of the invitation, a bride's family crest may be embossed in white. In pre-war days, before the paper shortage, wedding invitations and announcements were enclosed in two envelopes and were now coming back to that idea. On the outside one is written the full name and address of the addressee. On the inner envelope is written the full name exactly as written on the outer envelope but without the address. This inner envelope is not sealed, nor is the flap folded inside.

Tissues inclosed to keep the engraving from smudging should be removed before sending the invitation. Formal invitations should be sent from two to three weeks before the date set for the wedding. Announcements should be prepared for mailing on the wedding day but should not be posted until after the ceremony.

Question: I am to be maid of honor for my best friend. Do you think she will expect me to give her a shower?

Answer: I think she will. It is customary for the maid of honor (if she is not a relative) to give a shower for the bride.

Present your problems to Miss Markel who will promptly mail personal replies to questions from readers inclosing stamped self-addressed envelopes.

Looking At Life

By ERIC BRANDEIS

For five days the universe will be shut down.

It needs repainting, and the job will cost about $20,000. The whole solar system has become dirty, and all of it, including the sun, the moon, the planets, and the Milky Way have to be done over.

And why has the universe become so dirty?

"The earth war has cut in on us," said Fred Reiser, technician at Hayden Planetarium in New York. "We couldn't get the men nor the material to do the job."

"Yes," observed Gordon A. Atwater, curator of the Planetarium. "It is a shameful thing to have a human quarrel on a fifth-rate planet like the Earth let the whole Universe run down."

In case you think that I have gone crazy, let me report that the Hayden Planetarium in New York is a place where the whole Universe is presented in miniature to millions of visitors each year and where they can get a pretty good idea what the world really looks like—and how insignificant the earth is in the scheme of things.

I go there often, particularly when I get a bit too cocky about myself and the human race in general.

I look at the Earth—on which you and I live and strut—and wish that all of us could realize more often how little we amount to in the general scheme of things.

Well, on account of the war, the Planetarium has not been able to do any repair work for several years, and now it is going to be shut down for five or six days and the whole business is going to be repainted and refurbished.

Thirty-five unions painters have been hired to do the job and when it is all done the world will be bright and shiny once more.

I was thinking how nice it would be if the real universe could be shut down for a week or so and done over.

I was thinking what a fine thing it would be if we just started with "that fifth-rate planet, the Earth," and repainted, repolished and brightened it up.

It is too bad that we can't take that whole United Nations crew of delegates and assistants and give them paint brushes and sandpaper and let them go to work on a real renovating job.

They could take the sandpaper and rub off all the dirt of greed and hatred and bigotry and prejudice and intolerance. Then they could put on a coat of nice, clean paint of confidence and good will, of harmony and brotherhood, and finish it up with a brilliant lacquer of peace.

Look at all the billions we have spent for war and destruction—for all the things that have dirtied and befouled the earth.

At Hayden Planetarium they are going to do the whole Universe over for $20,000.

Can't we do something about that "fifth-rate planet"—the Earth? (Copyright, 1947, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

From Me To You

By MESEALL

Some people do funny things . . . they look for funny things in life . . . others live a very serious life . . . look for nothing that will amuse them and have a very poor sense of humor. But fortunately these people are in the minority.

We are no exception to the rule about looking for odd things . . . in fact we are very odd and easily amused . . . for we find that the people with whom we come in contact just by walking up and down the street very interesting . . . Yes, people are more fun than anybody.

For the past several weeks we have been checking on a certain item . . . an item that maybe you have thought about . . . especially if you drive an auto. We have gone around and around checking on seat covers in automobiles . . . We estimate that nine out of every ten cars use some sort of a seat cover.

It might be a new car . . . just out of the show room. One of the first things the owner does . . . put on a set of seat covers . . . he might pay a high price . . . or might pay a low price . . . or he might say to the "little woman" . . . don't we have some old sheets or blankets that will do for seat covers. The manufacturer goes to great pains in making the interior of his car attractive . . . beautiful upholstery . . . yet most of it is quickly covered up with seat covers. We know of several who had seat covers installed when they bought their car . . . and never took 'em off until they sold their car . . . and the chap who bought a second hand car had nice clean seats . . . yet the price for the car would have been the same without the seat covers.

The old cars sport seat covers . . . you can see that easily . . . it's like hanging new drapes in your old living room.

But that is just one item that is amusing to check . . . it harms no one . . . gives your imagination a chance to shake out the kinks.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

PARENTS MUST PULL TOGETHER

There is abroad the general impression that it is always the mother who shields the child from undesirable discipline. But judging from what I have seen with my own eyes and heard with my own ears and read in letters from mothers, I am sure that "always" makes the foregoing statement too strong. There are plenty of pampering papas and it seems to me they are more to be pitied (or condemned) than pampering mamas.

Of a son six his mother writes "I sometimes tell Oscar he can't have something and he will go to his daddy to get it, which his daddy will do and this gets under my skin, and if I'm provoked his daddy will just smile." This strikes me as about the meanest, low-down thing any parent can do.

Another Mother Writes

Another mother writes: "Calvin is seven years old, an only child and the apple of his father's eye. If anything goes against this boy's will or wishes, he throws himself on the floor in a tantrum—hits, kicks, breaks things, tears up pictures and goes on a regular rampage. He gets an allowance. I have tried to deduct from his allowance to pay for things he has broken, but his father is sorry for him and gives him extra money or buys him cream or candy for him. I lose my temper too often but I try to be consistent in my discipline, but so often his father countermands my orders, and disagrees with my discipline."

It pained me, as it must pain you, to read the following: "I have always been complimented on the fact that I have reared my seven-year-old daughter. But no one knows the struggle it has been."

Husband Interferes
"Regardless of when or for what I reprimand the child my husband always interferes and pacifies her to such an extent that at times she seems to hate me. If I deprive (Continued on Next Page)"

WASHINGTON—Sen. Claude Pepper, (D) of Florida opposes military aid to Greece: "We will not allow Russia directly or indirectly to dominate the world, but if she threatens aggression, the instrument to check and to hold her or any aggressor is the United Nations."

Bible Thought

Saying, Execute true judgment, and show mercy and compassion every man to his brother.—Zechariah 7:9.

The World and the Mud Puddles

WHAT ABOUT THE PEOPLE?

While a Republican House of Representatives and a Republican Senate have been muddling over some sort of a law that will meet with the approval of the voters who elected them last November, they have permitted the employees of the greatest utility in the United States to strike and leave their switchboards uncare for.

The National Federation of Telephone Workers struck early Monday morning and established their picket lines. There is one law of the Trade Unions that is considered binding of every Union man and the families of all Union men and that is, whether on strike or not, they must not cross the picket lines. The Federation of Women Telephone Workers is a separate organization. They did not strike but almost universally recognized the picket lines and so abandoned the switchboard.

Depend On Operators

While the automatic dial system of the telephone company takes care of the calls made within the cities where the dial system is established and does not depend upon operators of switchboards, working independently, and take care of a large percentage of calls within the confines of the large cities, the telephone subscribers in the smaller towns have to depend upon the operators of switchboards.

There may have been other small town exchanges where the switchboard operators stuck to their jobs, but there were very few in the whole nation that did so. One of these exchanges continued operation with one hundred per cent of its force on the job. That exchange is at Ramona, San Diego County, California, where Tazzie Cassau, the chief operator, said that the twelve operators serving three hundred eight-nine subscribers decided to stay on the job "because of our duty to the community where we live."

When you think of fires, or accidents or the sudden necessity of calling for the doctor, and in fact, emergencies of all kinds in the lives of the people of this nation, you realize what the chief operator at Ramona meant when she said "because of our duty to the community where we live."

Withdraw Pickets

Even the National Federation of Telephone Workers recognized that the situation at Ramona was beyond their control, and withdrew their pickets from Ramona. Will the members of the Congress of the United States recognize the necessity of immediately passing laws that will protect the people of the United States. Will they forget their desire to satisfy the Union leaders and perhaps their desire to satisfy the employers and think now of the necessity of doing something to protect the mass of people?

Will the Telephone Company be the greatest utility company operating in the nation, the people have an interest not only in the telephone company's work but in the work of the other utilities—the operating of water and of electricity; the operation of transportation companies, particularly city transportation companies, are all vital to the well being of every citizen.

There is a great mass of people—one hundred and forty million, within the confines of the nation who are interested in all of these utilities and it is high time that some brake was put upon the labor leaders.

Will Congress still hesitate to serve the people?

ILL-TEMPER

When temper takes the bit and rein, The sanest man becomes insane. Until he's taken time to cool The wisest man will be a fool. Even the greatest of the age Desert good reason, in a rage.

The gods with taunting tricks annoy The one they've chosen to destroy. They rob him of his reason first To leave him struggling at his worst. For strength and skill to do are vain When they are used without a brain.

Ill-temper long has proved to be Man's craftiest, deadliest enemy. Who would be fit for problems deep Must patient, calm and thoughtful keep; Stay still when angry words are said. Who keeps his temper, keeps his head.

Herostatus or Erostratus was an Ephesian youth who set fire to the temple of Diana at Ephesus in B. C. 356. He was tortured to death and an edict passed that his name should never be mentioned under penalty of death, but in vain; the youth gained immortal fame through his act.

Insist Vandenberg Not Candidate Lewis To Continue Demands To Reveal Communist Infiltration

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Friends of Senate Foreign Relations Chairman Arthur H. Vandenberg (R), Michigan, are convinced he means it when he says he does not seek the 1948 GOP presidential nomination. They say that Vandenberg still has his sights set on being secretary of state in a Republican administration—and that he regards this as his highest ambition in public service.

Big Van is reported authoritatively to believe that he would be too old to run for the presidency next year when he will be 63—a year younger than President Truman.

He is said to be strongly of the opinion that his role as elder statesman would best be climaxed in the senior cabinet post.

Vandenberg's voice as chairman of the foreign relations committee now is the voice of the Republican majority on international affairs. He speaks with the authority of the party on Capitol Hill.

The Michigan senator is said to be willing to become secretary of state under any successful Republican nominee—including Minnesota's Harold E. Stassen.

That, of course, includes the possibility that either Tom Dewey or Bob Taft, the GOP domestic policy boss, wins the nomination and the election.

THE EMPHASIS ON MINE SAFETY as dramatized by the "memorial" work stoppage of soft coal miners will continue in John L. Lewis' negotiations with bituminous operators.

Lewis is certain to demand a uniform national safety code—as contained in the United Mine Workers' contract with the government—in any agreement with the private operators.

During his appearance before the House labor committee after the Centralia disaster, Lewis asked for speedy legislation requiring federal mine inspectors to close pits they find violating safety standards.

As Lewis talked came the announcement that Secretary of Interior Julius A. Krug had ordered 518 soft coal mines closed as "dangerous."

The code was a major stumbling block in the negotiations which collapsed a year ago and led to federal seizure of the mines. Lewis will be more insistent than ever on the matter now, in view of the recent Illinois disaster.

The mine safety issue also will figure heavily in Lewis' demand that the private operators accept the government-approved health and welfare fund for miners.

Anthracite operators agreed to the welfare fund, but soft coal miners have not assented. The five-cent-a-ton royalty on bituminous coal for a welfare fund exists only by reason of the government-UMW contract which expires June 30.

THE DRIVE AGAINST COMMUNISTS in the United States is in full swing, with the House un-American activities committee determined to throw the national spotlight on American Reds.

The Communist party probably won't be outlawed, but the committee will leave no stone unturned in its efforts to expose the Reds to the American public.

The committee plans to make public a series of reports on Communist infiltration into almost every level of American life. It also plans to conduct additional hearings on the activities of leading Red agents in the United States.

Chairman J. Parnell Thomas (R) New Jersey, says that two cases similar to the Gerhardt Eisler case will be aired in the near future. The hearings undoubtedly will bring out details of the work of Russian-trained sabotage specialists who are roaming the country.

The committee is awaiting the return of Eugene Dennis, American Communist leader, to its witness stand. Dennis refused to accept a committee subpoena, but he will be cited for contempt of Congress unless he shows up.

In View Of The News

By J. C. Oestreicher, INS Foreign Director

Strange words indeed to be heard at a peace conference were put into the records by a fiery Polish spokesman who insisted that war-ravaged Poland would "fight" to retain the frontiers temporarily awarded her by the Potsdam agreement.

The spokesman was Viktor Grosz, chief of the information department of the Polish foreign ministry. His thunderous declamation rocked even more dangerously the precarious Big Four council in Moscow.

Grosz' threat had the ring of a figure of speech.

It is difficult to visualize Poland fighting any one in this extraordinarily perilous period of her history. And he made no attempt to infer that he was in any way speaking of his country's leading champion, the Soviet Union.

Yet his remarks underscored complexity of the problems faced by the foreign ministers' council and emphasized how hard it is going to be to make American concepts of democracy work inside the intensely nationalistic countries of Europe.

Grosz is an unusual man and obviously a man of tremendous physical drive.

He is only about forty. But already he has been a university professor, an editor and a major-general in the Polish army. His extensive travels were capped by a two-months visit to the United States late last year.

Verbal Projectile
Grosz threw his highly-explosive verbal projectile into the supercharged atmosphere of Moscow at a moment of the most severe tension.

No apparent progress has been made in reconciling the diametrically opposed viewpoints of Secretary of State Marshall and Foreign Minister Molotov on the meaning and permanency of the Potsdam accord.

No victories have been recorded in the Anglo-American campaign to establish that Germany needs more productive land to become an industrial factor for European peace, even though this might bear the superficial appearance of handing over rewards to a vanquished aggressor whose leaders were convicted as war criminals.

Excellent Case?
The Soviets feel that they have an excellent case in demanding the fullest privileges for themselves and for Poland at the expense of Germany. In answer to this somewhat emotional argument, Secretary Marshall has adduced and presented towering masses of facts and figures in behalf of an equitable solution that will draw the fuse from central Europe's tinderbox.

Moscow is not yet a failure by any certain means. The Russians have made some concessions and they make more.

But right now, the peacemakers' lot is not a happy one and the spectre of continued bitterness if not another war itself is uncomfortably large and menacing on the European horizon.

More Relief Workers For Tornado Zone

WOODWARD, Okla., April 12.—(INS)—The death toll in the tornado-ripped areas of Oklahoma and Texas was set at 133 today by the American Red Cross. Injured numbered more than 1,900.

The Red Cross listed 86 dead at Woodward; 34 dead at Higgins, Tex., and 13 at Glazier, Tex.

To augment the weary rescue crews which have labored day and night probing the twisted and shattered debris for additional victims, additional Red Cross relief workers were flown into the stricken area.

Area Relief Headquarters. American Red Cross midwestern area disaster relief director Robert Edison has already set up headquarters for the area in what is left of Woodward. He declared:

"The fury and force of the winds that were spent on the stricken area indicates one of the most destructive tornadoes I have witnessed.

"The ability of the affected communities in recovering from the disaster is remarkable."

Even as Edison spoke, grim-faced plainsmen today were rebuilding from the rubble that was once their homes. Lumber, hardware and other supplies were being funneled into the devastated area.

American Red Cross chairman Basil O'Connor announced a preliminary allocation of 250 thousand dollars for the relief operation, making an organized appeal for funds unnecessary.

THE PARENT PROBLEM

her of something for being naughty she gets it from her daddy . . . If it continues I fear it will break up our home.

"I have talked it over kindly at first and when that didn't bring success have resorted to arguing the matter, but it still doesn't help. Needless to say she is an only child."

Children Are Sufferers

"A house divided against itself can't stand," and when it falls the children are the greatest sufferers. To bring up a child well, both parents must try to be as one concerning his guidance. They ought to have enough intelligence and self-control to resist from disagreement in the child's presence, but to iron out their basic differences in his absence. Even then to discuss these differences without heat (reasonably) requires the highest degree of self-discipline and sportsmanship.

As I tried to show these mothers (and others like them) in my personal replies, they can't hope to change the father by getting angry and quarreling with him. They can win only through gentle loveliness and the "still small voice."

W. C. T. U.

Wayne W. C. T. U.

One of the outstanding events of the spring season was a lovely tea given by Wayne township W. C. T. U. Thursday evening at Slippery Rock Presbyterian church. Beginning at 8 o'clock, under the direction of Mrs. Edward Beltz, a varied program was presented to fifty members and guests.

A very impressive devotional period was conducted by Mrs. Wendell Shoemaker, counsellor for Wayne Y. T. C. using as her opening hymn by the audience, "Open My Eyes That I May See". Four members of the counsel presented the pageant, "The Four Freedoms". Miss Doris Houk, as freedom of want; Miss Irene Workman, freedom of fear; Miss Pauline Wehman, freedom of speech, and Miss Mary Jane Meehan, freedom of worship.

As each one read their specific passages of scripture, streamers of colored crepe paper were unveiled from the Bible. Roy Meehan, Jr., very fittingly sang "When Jesus Came" being followed with prayer by Mrs. Thomas Berger. Mrs. Beulah Bosmyer sang "The Stranger of Galilee" accompanied by Mrs. L. R. Van Horn on the piano with Clayton Hogue on the trumpet. Mrs. Floyd Worrell then told the group of the purpose of Womans Christian Temperance Unions in foreign countries.

In closing Mrs. Wendell Shoemaker for the W. C. T. U., Miss Isabelle Markie, Y. T. C., Miss Charlotte Beltz, L. T. L., and Wendell Shoemaker, Jr., for the W. R. R. stood behind a setting of miniature flags of all nations as Mrs. Worrell wound the ribbon around the globe and the group sang "The White Ribbon Rally Song". Charlotte Beltz pleased the group with the humorous reading "The Night Ma Heard The Burglar". Roy Meehan, Jr., then sang the popular song "The Old Lamp Lighter". A reading entitled "Pretty Maiden In A Hammock" by Mrs. C. V. Price was well received by all.

Mrs. Claire Boyer, director of alcohol education, had arranged for the screening of the W. C. T. U. motion picture film "The Pay Off". The film is designed to show the use and abuse of alcohol. It is especially educational for teen age groups and any one desiring this film are advised to contact, Mrs. Emmet Liebendorfer, of Ellwood City.

After the closing hymn, a tea was enjoyed in the basement of the church, arranged by Mrs. John Cunningham, Mrs. Edna Houk, and Mrs. William Johnson. Teachers of Park Gate school, Mrs. George Wilson, Miss Helen Cox, Miss Florence Swearingen, Mrs. Leon Coulter and Mrs. L. R. Van Horn, religious education teachers, were introduced at this time. An exhibit of posters made by the seventh grade in Wayne consolidated school were also viewed at the tea. The union especially thank the business and professional women's club of Ellwood City for the use of their flags. The collection received will be sent to headquarters for entertaining foreign guests at the world convention in June.

Regular meeting is to be held Tuesday evening, April 15 at the home of Mrs. Edna Houk, Wayne township.

District Institute

A district W. C. T. U. institute took place at the Liberty grange hall on April 10, with Mrs. Floyd Hoon of New Wilmington presiding. The morning session was in charge of New Wilmington and the afternoon led by the Energy union.

Mrs. Frank McEwain conducted the period of devotions. Features of the morning program included: Legislation and citizenship, Mrs. J. A. Boak; music, New Wilmington; poster exhibit, Plaingrove; amethyst beverage, Mrs. Rankin Johnson; greetings from county officers; noon tide prayer, Mrs. Scott Kirk. A delicious lunch was served at noon, with New Wilmington and East Brook granges serving as hosts after which Mrs. Francis McCracken presided for the afternoon session with Mrs. Vane Johns in charge of the devotions.

The following program was in order: Violin solo, Miriam Sovash, accompanied by Mrs. Eakin; essay, Robert McConnon; music, Mrs. Lois Morris; spiritual life, Mrs. Ralph Maxwell; religious education, Mrs. Frank Frew; W. R. R., Mrs. J. C. Pherson; talk, Mrs. F. J. Fox, county president; remarks, Mrs. C. E. Alken, and prayer, Mrs. Everett McConnell.

Frame House Burns Down Near Leesburg

A frame house owned by William Keas, Leesburg-Volant road, burned to the ground Friday in a short time, after wind-fanned flames reached the house from an outbuilding in the rear of the premises.

Firemen from New Wilmington and the Mercer East End department received the alarm and answered promptly, but were able to salvage only a few pieces of living room furniture.

The damage was estimated at $4,000 and the house was only partially covered by insurance.

The blaze apparently originated in an oil stove in the outbuilding.

House to work with a Republican Congress. You can hear the political orators go to town on that argument.

If that is indeed the strategy behind the omnibus bill, it is a reckless one. Most people, probably even most members of unions, are for reasonable restrictions that would end the abuses which jeopardize the whole collective bargaining system. Failure by this Congress to enact any labor legislation would produce a sense of frustration and helplessness. It would encourage irresponsible union leaders to further abuses. Next year, an election year, will be too late.

Restrictions Essential
In the closed sessions of the Senate Labor committee, Taft has argued that all of the restrictions contained in the omnibus bill are essential to labor peace. Only through an omnibus bill will it be possible to write the full ticket, he insists.

But the suspicion of politics will not down. This interval when authority is divided between a president of one party and a congress of another party, with the presidential election coming up, has traditionally been given over to playing politics with legislation. It has been the occasion for a kind of chess game in which you seek to box your opponent and thereby make political capital for the coming contest.

We need reasonable labor legislation. We need legislation that will be accepted and that can therefore be enforced. This is hardly the moment in history to play politics with industrial peace.

He Knew the Gardener

An old man was asked one day, how it was that he found so much delight in taking a daily stroll through a nearby garden. "Oh, you see," he said, "I know the gardener."

There IS a difference if you know the gardener. There are millions of people walking through this fair world, breathing God's fresh air, reveling in the beauties of His creation, being warmed by His sun in the day time, and counting His stars like tiny candles at night—but who have never met the Gardener!

Every thinking man knows there must be a Gardener, there must be a Mind which has created the beauties which surround us, there must be a Hand which preserves and keeps them. But is it possible to find the Gardener? Is it possible to know Him?

Indeed, it is! Jesus says: "He that hath seen Me, hath seen the Father." God has revealed Himself in Jesus Christ. "No man cometh to the Father but by Me," He said at another time.

God reveals Himself to us in His majesty and His might through the telescope and microscope. But He reveals Himself in His personal love to us only through the Gospel of His Son.

It is the penitent heart that feels the warm touch of the Gardener's hand—the heart which has been broken by sorrow over its sin and trusts alone in Jesus Christ for mercy and for pardon.

There are millions of people in the world today, to whom the world is a garden, and who enjoy their daily walk through it simply because they "know the Gardener." These people are the Christian men and women who have found a forgiving God in the pages of the Bible.

If you are not on speaking terms with the Gardener, cultivate the company of the people who know Him. Join them next Sunday at church.

Erie Minister Will Speak Before Local Youth Group Tonight

Youth For Christ Rallies Continue
At First Methodist Auditorium
This Evening

Rev. James Harper, of Erie, pastor and young peoples worker, who has been engaged in work among the youth of the country, will be the speaker this evening, at 7:45 o'clock before the New Castle Youth for Christ audience in the First Methodist church, North Jefferson at North street, it is announced.

Rev. Harper, who is a trumpeter, will play during the service several numbers. Directing the service as usual, will be Rev. Howard V. Sartell, director of the local youth movement, with Rev. Francis Johanninges directing the song service. Rose Bender will accompany at the piano.

The musical program will be augmented by the singing of the Youth for Christ ensemble and choir, led by Miss Mary Aiken. The singers will be heard numerous times during the program of the evening.

From Chicago, Ill., next week, the young people will have as their speaker, George Dewey Blomgren, foreign newspaper correspondent and executive secretary of the Christian Breakfast Club association of the U. S. Mr. Blomgren will address church audiences over the week end during his visit in the city.

County Is Given Quota Of Delegates

The Pennsylvania State Sabbath School Association has given Lawrence county a quota of delegates to attend the great International Sabbath School convention to be held in Des Moines Iowa, July 23 to 27. This quota will be divided among the eight districts comprising the county association, and it is hoped that every district will be represented.

In connection with the convention there is being arranged a pre-convention tour to Yellowstone National Park, Salt Lake City, Colorado Springs, Pike's Peak, Denver National Mountain Park and other places of interest. There is also a grand tour to Mexico arranged after the International Sunday School convention that will last for 24 days. Those interested may get in touch with Lawrence County Sabbath School Association headquarters, rooms 306-7, Lawrence Savings & Trust building.

Rev. J. A. Fetzer To Be Radio Speaker

State Police Using Three-Way Radio

Three-way radio system has been added to the New Castle substation of the State police, and it is now possible for state policeman to communicate with each other any place in Lawrence county. In fact, the radio system is so arranged that, in time of emergency, they can talk to each other in cars or stations at any point in Western Pennsylvania. The Station here is WTPB.

Shown at the transmitter, sending out a radio message is Private Paul Faidley, while Private Paul F. Mato holds the receiver. Private John Hardy is standing at the transmitter.

Accepting the radio message in the car is Private Hugh P. Cunningham with Private John Kizton driving the State police car.

While the system is designed to add greater efficiency to protection in Lawrence county, a push button in a State police car permits the State police to talk to State police in Butler, Mercer, Beaver and other counties. The master station for this district is at Butler barracks.

The system is so designed Station WTPB can broadcast to a car and the officer in the car can talk to the station, and in addition men in cars can converse with police in other cars.

Move To Cut Off Benzedrine Sales To School Pupils

PHILADELPHIA, April 12—(INS)—Police and school officials today intensified their drive against the sale of benzedrine inhalers to minors after a 16-year-old high school boy was found in a dazed condition from the effects of the drug.

The youth, Otis Stevens, was found huddled in an elevator of Benjamin Franklin High School several hours after school had closed.

He was taken to Hahnemann hospital, where physicians said he was suffering from benzedrine poisoning. Dr. Marie Frey, a district school physician, recently reported that she found numerous pupils in two schools suffering from "Benny Jags."

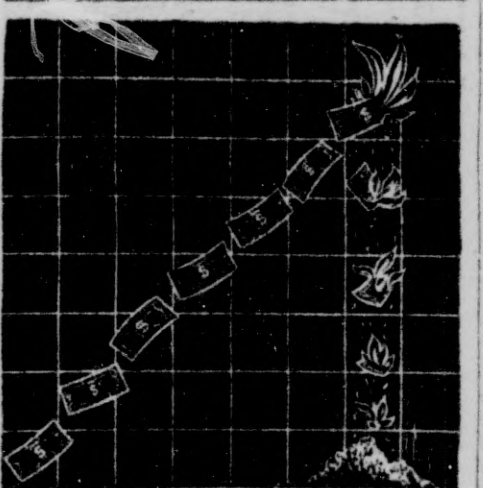

PRODUCTION HIT

PITTSBURGH, April 12—(INS)—John L. Lewis' mine "safety strike" cut more deeply into the nation's steel production today when the Sharon Steel Co. at Sharon, Pa., announced two blast furnaces and five open hearth furnaces have been banked.

The corporation said one blast furnace was taken out of production at its Sharpsville plant, and a blast furnace and five open hearths at its Sharon works.

A spokesman for the corporation said the company had only a three-day supply of coke left.

Three Nations Pledge Accord In New Economy

France, China, Canada Will Cooperate In Economic Collaboration

GENEVA, April 12.—(INS)—Delegates of France, Canada and China pledged the co-operation of their governments today in international economic collaboration.

The promises were given at the second session of the preparatory committee of the international trade and employment conference meeting in convention-crowded Geneva.

France made some reservations regarding multi-lateral tariff reductions.

Andre Philippe of France said that certain precautions must be taken in this regard. He said that during the present transitional period a few unavoidable preferences, such as those of the British empire, must be respected.

Should Cut Preferences

He said, however, that the volume of imperial preferences should be reduced.

Philippe defended French tariff unions saying there should be no attempt to break up existing political bonds for the sake of economic solidarity. He also defended "fragmentary agreements" already made and asked a widening of present customs union within the framework of the ITO charter.

The French delegate warned that France may ask for special considerations because of the damage done to her economy by the war.

L. D. Wilgress, Canadian ambassador to Soviet Russia, said that his country would enter the negotiations in a spirit of give and take.

Dr. Wu Sze-King, Chinese ambassador to Belgium, spoke mainly on the need for tariff readjustments.

Garbage Collection Plans Being Made At New Wilmington

Council Decides On Program: Other News Notes Of College Town

NEW WILMINGTON, April 12.—Boro council has decided to accept the recommendations of the sanitation committee in regard to garbage collection. The new plan is as follows: Subscription to garbage collection will be placed on seasonal basis with a minimum period of six months. A special rate of $4 will be granted all those paying in advance for the service. This rate will save 50 cents over the monthly rate of 75 cents per month.

The solons have also decided to advertise for bids for blacktopping Haw Alley, from Vine street to Neshannock avenue. The action was requested by the Depositors National Bank in order that the alley may be graded in preparation for their improvement of the rear of their property.

NEW PASTOR TO PREACH

Rev. Robert F. McDonald of St. Clairsville, O., will occupy the pulpit of the United Presbyterian church, here, Sunday morning. He was recently elected church pastor to succeed Rev. J. Ralph Neale who resigned and is now residing in Florida.

PLAN FUND DRIVE

Members of the Kiwanis club will conduct a drive for money for the National Cancer fund, Monday evening, April 21, according to Harold Burns, Lawrence county chairman.

NEW WILMINGTON NOTES

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Bischoff, Market street, that their son, Clayton, Jr., has been promoted to the rank of corporal. He is stationed in Greenland.

Mr. and Mrs. John Reed, East Neshannock avenue, have returned home after spending the winter at New Smyrna Beach, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sewall, N. Market street, are home after spending a month in Florida.

Wendell Clevis, a medical student at Baltimore, Md., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Clevis, Vine street.

Clarence Stevenson, E. Neshannock avenue, has returned home after spending several months with his son, James Stevenson and family, at Little Rock, Ark.

Seeking $300,000 Damages As Result Of Auto Accident

Claim Woman Left In State Of 'Suspended Death' For A Year And A Half

PHILADELPHIA, April 12.—(INS)—A $300,000 damage suit was on file in federal court in Philadelphia today as the result of an automobile accident which alleged left a 23-year-old woman in a state of "suspended death" for a year and a half.

The suit was filed by Leland Wenger on behalf of himself and his wife, Rhoda.

Mrs. Wenger gave birth to a daughter, Karen Beth, six months after the accident near Reading, Pa., although she was still in a state of semi-coma.

Pittsburgh Defendant

The L. and H. Transportation Co., of Pittsburgh, was named defendant. Wenger claimed the firm's truck hit his automobile, breaking his leg and collar bone, and leaving his wife paralyzed and speechless.

He asked $100,000 damages for his own injuries, and $200,000 for his wife's.

Robert M. Bernstein, Wenger's attorney, charged that Mrs. Wenger has been unable to speak or use her arms and legs since the accident on Nov. 30, 1945. He added that her injuries caused her to "remain unconscious for long periods of time."

The Wengers returned to San Francisco last September from Allentown, where Mrs. Wenger was hospitalized.

At the time of Karen's birth, physicians at Allentown hospital said the mother was in a coma or semi-coma. The birth also created a stir in medical circles because the mother had been fed only intravenously for the six previous months.

Aged Recluse In Chicago Leaves Large Fortune

CHICAGO, April 12.—(INS)—A $100,000 fortune in cash and securities was found Friday in the safety deposit box of August Richter, aged and apparently impoverished recluse.

The 79-year-old Richter was found dying on a rag-strewn bed spring in the junk-littered, rat-infested basement flat he shared with his blind, 89-year-old sister Amelia.

In a trunk near the dying man's rude litter, detectives found a small fortune consisting of $20,641 in currency and stocks and bonds which may be worth as much as $25,000, and the keys to the strongboxes in the La Salle National Bank.

Amassed Fortune
Jack Reubens, chief investigator for the Public Administrator's Office, said he had learned that Richter amassed a fortune as a member of the New York Stock Exchange, many years ago.

Richter and his sister had lived in abject poverty in their squalid five-room flat on Chicago's Southwest side for many years.

His last known job was as a factory watchman.

Uncashed dividend checks found in the trunk indicated that the vault and safety deposit box may yield further securities.

Richter suffered a heart attack Thursday, and died shortly after being removed to a hospital.

Similarity To "Collyer Case"
Police were struck by the similarity to the "Collyer case" in New York.

The five rooms were dark and dirty, and littered with rags and old newspapers and odds and ends of junk.

The currency found in the dusty old trunk counted 13 $1000 bills, 40 $100 bills, 182 $20 bills, and a single dollar bill.

After the brother had been taken to the hospital, Detective Thomas Edwards and Al Candye urged the aged woman to go there also. It was then that she revealed the hiding place of the treasure.

The sister led the detectives to a trunk in Richter's room where her brother had lain on the bedsprings covered with old clothes.

"This is everything," she said, pointing weakly to the trunk. The officer found the money hidden among some old clothes at the bottom of the trunk.

Upon their promise to take care of her valuables for her the blind woman let the police take her to the hospital.

Coal 'Strike' Near Collapse As Miners Stream Back To Pits

PITTSBURGH, April 12.—(INS)—John L. Lewis' mine "safety strike" was near collapse today as soft coal production soared, and thousands of miners returned to the pits as fast as federal inspectors approved them.

Although today is an optional work day in the nation's bituminous fields, operating managers of government-inspected collieries predicted most diggers will be on the job.

West Virginia and Pennsylvania mines were operating near normal. Central Pennsylvania reported 75 percent of their daily output had been attained. Northern West Virginia diggers mined 8000 tons beyond their daily normal production and the southern fields were operating at 80 per cent of normal.

In many of the mines in West Virginia and Pennsylvania, miners did not wait for federal inspection. Instead, they returned to work under certification of management-union safety committee inspections, defying Lewis' order to wait for federal inspection.

YOUTH STARTS LIFE TERM FOR SLAYING

WILMINGTON, Del., April 12.—(INS)—Danny Norris, 18-year-old reform school inmate, today began a life prison term for the first degree murder of a Wilmington policeman.

Chief Justice Charles T. Richards imposed the sentence after the jury recommended leniency.

Norris was accused of fatally shooting Detective Thomas P. Conaty, Jr., the morning after last Christmas.

Shenango Township Residents To Meet

A mass meeting has been planned by citizens of the Shenango township area for Tuesday evening, April 15, at which time plans will be made for the revival of the old township P. T. A. and for the purpose of taking safety measures in an effort to prevent serious accidents in the vicinity.

The meeting, which will be held in the Shenango high school, will get under way at 7:30 o'clock with Mrs. H. McNichols as chairman.

It is planned to petition the highway department for a traffic light at the busy East New Castle intersection adjacent to the Shenango high school in view of the recent number of children who have been struck at the point.

The group will also make plans for the installation of a sidewalk from the highway to the township school building.

Wentzel Facing Ten-Twenty Year Prison Sentence

Diemaker Found Guilty Of Second-Degree Murder In Slaying Of Divorcee

NORRISTOWN, Pa., April 12.—(INS)—Gerald C. Wentzel, 37-year-old Pottstown diemaker, today faced a possible ten to 20 year prison stretch for the strangling of Mrs. Miriam Green, his pretty divorcee-sweetheart.

Wentzel, married and the father of a young daughter, was found guilty of second degree murder by a jury of ten women and two men after ninety minutes deliberation.

His attorney, H. Wellington Rosenberry, Jr., announced immediately that he would ask for a new trial and continuation of bail, under which Wentzel had been free since his arrest.

The defendant dropped into his chair and burst into sobs as the verdict was announced. His wife, Evelyn, and the victim's mother, Mrs. Kathryn O'Meara, of Mohnton, who had testified on behalf of Wentzel, became hysterical.

Assistant District Attorney A. Benjamin Seivica had asked for a first degree murder verdict, with life imprisonment. In a summation to the jury, he declared that Mrs. Green's divorce, which was granted the week before she was slain, precipitated her garroting.

"She showed them (the divorce papers) to Wentzel, told him she was now free and asked him what he was going to do about it," Seivica said.

"When she threatened to expose him, he killed her."

The defense contended that Wentzel was away on a hunting trip at the time the 26-year-old woman was strangled to death.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., April 12.—(INS)—Atlantic City's dog liberator is on the loose again—and so are more than a score of dogs.

Apparently observing "be kind to dumb animals week" this friend of dogdom picked the locks at the Atlantic City dog pound yesterday and freed about 30 strays.

Only a month ago someone pulled the same trick and let loose about 20 pooches.

Await Clearing Weather To Begin Round-World Hop

NEW YORK, April 12.—(INS)—Granted permission to take-off on his round-the-world speed flight from La Guardia field, Milton Reynolds, Chicago business man today awaited clearing weather.

Reynolds, millionaire pen manufacturer, will act as navigator on the trip, with William P. Odom, former RAF flyer as pilot and Carroll (Tex) Sailer as co-pilot and co-engineer. They will fly a converted army A-26 attack plane and expect to circumnavigate the globe in less than 55 hours.

The plane was given permission to take off from La Guardia field after Reynolds agreed to lighten the gasoline load to be carried. He will make a stop at Cedar, Newfoundland for additional fuel. Original plans called for a non-stop flight to Paris.

Reynolds said that with any "break" in the weather he would take off some time today.

Outstanding Hit Coming Tuesday

'Dear Ruth' To Be Presented At Cathedral Under Lions Club Sponsorship

An outstanding comedy hit is promised for New Castle, Tuesday night, with the showing of "Dear Ruth", which is coming here under the sponsorship of the Lions Club.

"Dear Ruth" comes to New Castle direct from the Henry Miller Theater, New York City, on a coast-to-coast tour. It is produced by the Civic Drama Guild of New York, which is making available on a countrywide basis some of the best shows produced on Broadway.

"Dear Ruth" boasts two laughs a minute and a fine evening's entertainment is guaranteed.

The role of "Ruth" is played by Jane Butler, who has appeared in such outstanding hits as "Angel Street," "Pride and Prejudice" and "Over 21." Originally from Chicago, she came to New York to study drama at the New School of the Theater and was seen there in a student production by a talent scout of the Max Gordon Office and given her first professional part in the play, "Three Cornered Moon."

Edith Wilkins, the mother of Ruth, is played by Gertrude Guyer, who returns to the stage after five years of flying planes for her country as a member of the Women's Air Transport Command, during which time she flew the Atlantic 104 times. Prior to entering the service she appeared on Broadway and on tour with such stars as Walter Hampden, Maurice Evans and Helen Hayes.

Other members of the cast of "Dear Ruth" are equally experienced and an outstanding performance is assured.

The show is sponsored by the Lions Club for the benefit of its Blind-Welfare Fund. The net proceeds of the performance will be used by the local service club for its sight-saving work.

MacARTHUR DENIES HE ORDERED BAN OF ANZAC CELEBRATION

TOKYO, April 12.—(INS)—General Douglas MacArthur emphatically denied today that he has restricted Australian and New Zealand "Anzac" celebrations in Japan.

The supreme commander of the Allied powers declared: "There is not the slightest foundation for a story circulating in the Australian press that any effort is being made by headquarters to curtail in any way celebration of Anzac day."

"So far as headquarters is concerned, Anzac troops can parade at any time, at any place, irrespective of any circumstance."

Adjustments Will Be Made For Lost Telephone Service

Local Patrons Will Be Re-compensated For Service Lost During Emergency, Jacquish States

Appropriate adjustments will be made in local telephone bills covering the period during which only emergency service is available, N. N. Jacquish, manager of the Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania, said today.

"We realize that the inconvenience is probably more important than the amount involved," he said. "However, no charge will be made for local service for the period we are forced to limit it to emergency calls."

THE ISSUE IN THE TELEPHONE STRIKE

The real issue in the telephone strike—as it affects Pennsylvanians—is this—

Shall a single national group have the power to disrupt the telephone service of the people of Pennsylvania?

Shall a single national group have the power to determine whether or not Pennsylvania telephone men and women can work—regardless of their wishes?

The leaders of the National Federation of Telephone Workers demand that their organization control bargaining for all telephone workers in the various companies that comprise the Bell System.

Yet, none of the four Unions representing the employees of this Pennsylvania Company is a member of the National Federation of Telephone Workers. In March, employees in our plant Union voted nearly two to one, not to be represented by a national organization.

In spite of these facts, the leaders of the National Federation of Telephone Workers seek to impose their will on the employees of this Company and on the people of Pennsylvania.

Picket lines have been thrown around our buildings by members of the National Federation of Telephone Workers, in an attempt to prevent our employees from going to work, and so cripple Pennsylvania's telephone service.

The employees of this Company have not elected to have their right to work controlled by any such organization, nor have they elected to have questions of wages and working conditions settled by it.

They prefer, as in the past, to deal with the management of the Company for which they work.

It is not in their interest, nor is it in the public interest, that they be compelled to have a national group represent them.

This Company believes that Pennsylvania telephone wages like Pennsylvania telephone rates should be settled in Pennsylvania.

The telephone business in Pennsylvania is regulated by the Pennsylvania Public Utilities Commission. National telephone bargaining would give the National Federation of Telephone Workers power over this essential public service—but without regulation.

We believe that the place to settle disputes about wages and working conditions is locally—and not on an industry-wide basis where conditions in other parts of the country might be controlling.

William Carbone Serving In Japan

WITH THE EIGHTH ARMY IN OSAKA, Japan, April 12.—Private William Carbone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Carbone of 205 South Liberty street, New Castle, Pa., has recently been assigned to the 90th field artillery battalion of the 25th infantry (Tropic Lightning) division, commanded by Major General Charles L. Mullins, Jr.

Pvt. Carbone entered the army on Sept. 6, 1946, and received his basic training at Fort Knox, Ky. He departed for overseas duty on Dec. 17, 1946, and upon his arrival in Japan was assigned to the 25th division.

Before entering the service Pvt. Carbone attended New Castle high school and was later employed by Pabst Universal Sanitary Manufacturing Co.

while her husband was at work and, when she told him she had no money, threatened her with a gun, forced her to disrobe and attacked her.

Robinson was identified by a police photographer. He had a previous record of burglary.

The products of the Cornish tin mines, in England, were famous in the ancient world, and furnished the Phoenicians with one of their chief articles of trade.

Robinson was convicted yesterday of the attack on the young housewife.

IN TECHNICOLORAbandon Many Pets
In Florida AreasBy RUTH BRIGHAM

MIAMI, Fla., April 12.—Yes, it's a dog's life for poochie and pussy in a resort town.

Swell for those society cats and dogs who go to Florida with their rich owners and bask in the sunshine—but pity the poor pets who attract the fancy of the flatter population.

There's an estimated 35,000 dog population in greater Miami—and they don't all belong to the socially registered.

Mrs. Margaret Pursey, manager of the Miami Humane Society, said most offenders of pet abandonment are the trailer group—people who spend a month or longer in trailer camps, get a pet during that time, and abandon it when they leave.

Abandonment Cases
Since there are more cats than dogs in Florida's tropical climate have four litters a year—naturally, there are more cat abandonment cases, she says.

Mrs. Pursey says that many cats are left to run wild on fashionable Miami Beach, and we are constantly being called to pick up "wild cats" over there, she said.

"These cats are really wild, too. They live on garbage, howl at night, have litters in piles of debris, fight and have to be trapped before they can be caught."

The humane society picked up 2,529 dogs during the past year, the majority of which were abandoned. They picked up nearly 6,000 cats. They're stressing this national "Be Kind to Animal Week," but hope it'll stretch throughout the year.

But there are also many prosperous veterinarians in the area, testifying to the attention that some animals receive.

Labor Troubles
Rampant In AkronFour Thousand Already Idled And
Other Jobs Now Being Threatened

AKRON, O., April 12.—(INS)—Labor troubles were rampant today in Akron with 4,000 persons already idled in three industries and hundreds of other jobs threatened.

CIO-United Rubber Workers were on strike at the suburban Barberton plants of the Seiberling Rubber Company, throwing 2,000 persons out of work in a dispute over application of an 11½ cent hourly wage increase.

A strike followed a temporary shutdown of the Sun Rubber Company, also of Barberton, when stock ran low but Garfield Ries, president of Local 58, CIO-URW, said he hoped to get the 400 employees back on the job Monday.

Workers Idled
The five-state work stoppage of the AFL-Brick and clay workers idled employees of the Robinson Clay Products Company in Akron and the American Vitrolite Products Company in Akron. Negotiations were broken off after the companies offered an 11½ cent hourly wage boost in answer to union demands for a 12-cent increase.

A dispute over the firing of John Ondo, president of Local 1001, CIO-United Steelworkers, touched off a walkout at the Atlantic Foundry Company, which employs 450 men.

A Monday morning strike deadline still stood for CIO-United public workers who are employed by the city of Akron. Union representatives were scheduled to meet with Mayor Charles E. Slusser tonight in an effort to settle union demands for a 20-cent hourly wage increase.

Double Trouble
For Father, Son

PHILADELPHIA, April 12.—(INS)—Trouble, separated by ten Philadelphia blocks, came today to Charles Omrod, 53, and his son, Charles, 21.

The elder Omrod was knocked down by a truck who took his watch, glasses and wallet. But two policemen were watching, and a suspect was captured.

At almost the same time, the younger Omrod's parked car was swiped. Again police were on hand. They arrested two men who crashed the car into a pole.

HARRISBURG, April 12.—(INS)—Gov. James H. Duff today announced approval of a 36.90 mile road improvement program in state forests for the 1947-49 biennium starting June 1 and estimated to cost $100,000.

Duff said the program would be carried out by state highway department maintenance forces.

Vishinsky Answers
'Iron Curtain' By
Winston Churchill

MOSCOW, April 12.—(INS)—Just thirteen months ago, in his historic speech at Fulton, Mo., Winston Churchill framed the classic phrase "Iron curtain" to describe nations within the orbit of Soviet power.

Today, Andrei Vishinsky, Soviet deputy foreign minister, who also speaks good English, threw it back at the British wartime prime minister in defending Russian claims to German reparations for current production. He said:

"Those who look upon our country with eyes not closed by an 'iron curtain' and see our damage, understand our demands for just compensation from Germany."

Mexican Display
In Public Library
Junior Department

Much interest is shown an exhibit of Mexican articles of a miscellaneous nature which are on display in the Junior Department of the Free Public Library for the coming week.

Among the colorful articles are a group of toys which are handmade by Mexicans. They include dolls; a toy guitar; a wooden snake; miniature bicycle, farm horse and wagon woven with straw; a model kitchen in Mexico and earthenware.

Most of the articles are on display through the courtesy of Miss Ruth Sample, Spanish teacher at the local high school, who spent a year studying in Mexico.

Highlighted by the exhibit are books about boys and girls of Mexico which are available in the Junior Department, Mrs. Walter S. McKee, reports.

Mexican books are listed as follows: "Pedro the Angel of Olvera Street" by L. Politi; "Maria Ross" by V. Kelsey; "Forrest Pool" by L. A. Arner; "Suzi Goes to Mexico" by M. C. Thielmann; "Pedro the Potter" and "The Merry Frogs" by I. Purnell; "Paradise Valley" by V. Angelo; "Mario and the Chuna" by E. Hall and "Seeing Mexico with Lowell Thomas" by Lowell Thomas.

Important Farm Subjects With Local Granges

Charles G. Burress, extension agricultural engineer of Pennsylvania State college, will address several grange chapters on Monday and Tuesday.

On Monday at 8 p. m. in the New Bedford grange hall, Mr. Burress will speak on "Home Freezer Units." He will point out what to look for in selecting a home freezer unit, and how a home freezer unit could be built.

Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, Mr. Burress will conduct a demonstration on the farm of Clarence Gardner and son, Scott, township, south of the Slippery Rock creek near Rambler's Rest, on the planning of a farm pond. Mr. Burress will show how to select a site and how to plan the location, and size of the dam.

Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the Westfield grange, New Bedford, Mr. Burress will speak on farm buildings. He will discuss building materials, and the location of farm buildings. Mr. Burress will show how to make plans for new buildings, and how to remodel the existing buildings.

WAR PLANT SOLD

CLEVELAND, April 12.—(INS)—The regional war assets administration today announced the sale of a surplus war plant at Neville Island to the Empire Chemical Co., a new subsidiary of the Pittsburgh Coke & Chemical Co.

The parent operated the plant during the war. WAA said the sale price was $525,000.

New Castle High Track Team Defeats Struthers 83-35

Local Thinclads Swamp Ohioans In Opening 1947 Meet

Sammy Keys Wins 100 And 220 Dashes, Mile Relay Goes To New Castle In Fine Time

Grabbing 10 first places on wind-swept Taggart stadium Friday afternoon, the New Castle High track team began the 1947 season by swamping Struthers High under an avalanche of points, 83 to 35.

Head Track Coach Bill Klee was more than satisfied with the showing of the Red and Black wearers in their first meet. Owing to adverse weather conditions, the tracksters have not had much training, but turned in some beautiful performances nonetheless, especially young Sammy Keys who did the 100 in 10.4 and the 220 in 24.1.

Mile Relay Surprises
The big surprise of the afternoon was the time made by the New Castle High mile relay team, WPAL champs last year, in running the event in 3:39.5 on a windy track. Running for New Castle were Sid Lockley Jr., Crunkleton, Phil Richards, Jim Gillespie.

New Castle also won the half-mile relay in 1:36.5, very good time. Both times in the mile and half-mile relays would have taken any WPAL meet last year. Running the half-mile relay for New Castle were Sammy Keys, Phil Gillespie, Gertruders, and Jim Gillespie.

Struthers was especially strong in the field events, winning firsts in the shot put, discus, and pole vault, and taking a first in the 120 high hurdles. New Castle won the low hurdles, broad jump and high jump.

Meet Butler Next Week
Caps runs a very fine race in the mile winning in the remarkable time of 4:54.5 with very little training. Back of him, Sid Lockley Jr. won the half-mile run in good time 2:05.3 also. Phil Richards ran the 440 to win in 55.6, very good time. Other New Castle first place winners were: Robey in the low hurdles, Copson in the high jump, and Gilmore in the broad jump.

D. Florio was the big man on the Struthers team winning the shot put and discus, while Bartolovich won the high hurdles and Skvarka the pole vault.

New Castle will meet with Butler High's thinclads at the stadium Wednesday, April 16, it was announced by Faculty Manager Robert Mills.

120-yard High Hurdles: Bartolovich, Struthers; Robey, Missy, New Castle, Time—17.0.
100-yard Dash: Keys, Gilmore, New Castle; Hoffman, Struthers, Time—10.4.
220-yard Dash: Keys, Gilmore, New Castle; Hoffman, Struthers, Time—24.1.
440-yard Dash: Richards, Crunkleton, New Castle; Skvarka, Struthers, Time—55.6.
880-yard Relay: New Castle—Keys, Gilmore, Gribble, Gillespie, Time—3:39.5.
1-mile Relay: New Castle—Lockley Jr., Crunkleton, Richards, Gillespie, Struthers—Palkovich, Bartolovich, Ringos, Skvarka, Time—5:23.5.
Pole Vault: Skvarka, Struthers; Copson, Black-Horcher, New Castle, Height—19-ft. 10-in.
Shot Put: D. Florio, Struthers; Wing, Penna, New Castle, Distance—45-ft. 10-in.
Discus: D. Florio, Struthers; Tate, New Castle; A. Florio, Struthers, Distance—127-ft.
High Jump: Copson, New Castle; Crunkleton, New Castle, Ringos, Struthers—12-ft. 6-in.
Broad Jump: Gilmore, Gribble, Lamorelia, New Castle, Distance—19-ft. 6-in.
Final Score: New Castle 83; Struthers 35.

New Castle High Has Golf Team

Head Golf Coach Robert Mills Will Look Over Candidates Monday

New Castle High School is again taking up golf with a varsity team under the tutoring of Head Golf Coach Robert Mills. The team will use the Castle Hills course as a home course, it was announced.

The New Castle High golfers will gather at the course at 3:30 o'clock Monday afternoon for a round of golf, it was announced. New Castle has not had a golf team for several years.

The first match is with Sharon High at the Castle Hills course next Friday, Mills announced.

Billy Fox Puts Kochan To Sleep

NEW YORK, April 12.—(INS)—Billy Fox, young Philadelphia negro light-heavyweight, today had scored his second kayo over Georgie Kochan after weathering a first-round knockdown of a hard fought fight scheduled for ten rounds at St. Nicholas Arena.

Kochan, out to avenge a six-round knockout by Fox 16 months ago, tagged his opponent in the first round for the count of eight after an exchange of blows.

Fox Recovers
Fox recovered to pummel Kochan at will in the second but suffered a bad gash over his left eye in the third. The Philly boy was bleeding so badly that it was feared he might not be able to continue but a commission doctor ruled otherwise.

Recovering in the fifth, Fox staggered Kochan and then came on to deliver the knockout at 2:12 of the seventh after previously dropping his foe for a seven count.

Basketball Teams Will Meet Sunday

All senior basketball teams in New Castle are invited to the Arena office Sunday at 2 o'clock for a meeting to try and get organized for a big city league here next winter. Charles Lumley, president of the league will conduct the meeting.

It is hoped to have at least 18 teams take part in the league. Seven teams have already joined the league.

Crosby Lags In Indiana Tourney

FRENCH LICK, Ind., April 12.—Crooner Bing Crosby was 17 strokes back of the leaders today as the 11th annual midwest amateur golf tournament went into the third round at French Lick.

"Der Eagle" could do no better than 183 for the first 36 holes, as defending champion Gus Moreland, Peoria, Ill., and Ben Owen, Lexington, Ky., led the way with scores of 146.

Two strokes behind the leaders came Wilford Wherle of Louisville, Ky., with a total of 148.

South Hill A. A. To Meet Sunday

South Hill A. A. baseball team will have a meeting Sunday at 2 o'clock at the club rooms for all 1946 players and officers and any others who are interested in playing with the South Hills team this summer.

The South Hills team will start workouts next week.

Duquesne Stars Seeking Revenge At Arena Sunday

K. Pulaski 'Big Five' Faces Strengthened Dukes For Final Game Of Season

An indicated packed Arena floor Sunday will greet the Duquesne Ironmen stars in their battle with the K. Pulaski "Big Five" at four o'clock. This is a rematch of the game played last Wednesday in which the locals upset the Dukes 51 to 48, in a thrilling contest.

This is the final game of the year for the New Castle fans. Duquesne asked for the return game and will have several new stars in the lineup in addition to Joe Camie, All-American, Joe Penzelik, Bill Lacy and Don Barry of the Duquesne University team.

Coach "Bus" Belber of the touring Dukes said today "We expect to give the K. Pulaskis a drubbing Sunday, we will have in addition to the Duquesne University boys, Moe Becker, Stan Noska, and Andy Kasparik of the Pittsburgh pro Ironmen."

Pulaskis Confident
Manager and Coach Al Gonet and his assistant Leo Evans are confident that their boys will again upset the Pittsburgh stars. The K. P. team will have Andrews, Wimer, Wasik, Dembinski, Zubkowsky, Patterson, Cooper, Davis, Kelly, and others in the lineup.

It was announced that the prices for the game have been reduced. The fans who saw the game last Wednesday will want to see the two teams in action again. This is really "big time" basketball for New Castle. The Pulaskis have won 51 games this year and will strive to make it 52.

Dembinski Vs. Camie
Of particular interest to the fans Sunday will be the scoring battle between Joe Camie, Duquesne's All-American and "Chuckie" Dembinski of Westminster, the third highest ranking scorer in the state this past season. Both Dembinski and Camie are highly rated in collegiate circles in the United States. Dembinski made the all-state first team and so did Camie.

The fans are eager to see these stars in action for the last time this year. This will undoubtedly be the finest attraction of the year here.

Dewey A. C. Has Meeting Friday

Members of the Dewey A. C. baseball team held a meeting Friday night and heard Manager Rico outline plans for the 1947 season just ahead. The players under contract will have a workout at Colonial field near the Washington school Sunday at 2:30 o'clock, Rico stated.

The Dewey A. C. is planning a strong team in the city baseball league. The Deweyes have drawn the Lawrence Indies as the opening loop, opponents.

Slovak Club To Start Training

All members of the Slovak club baseball team will have their initial workout the season Monday evening at the Clifton Flats field.

The Slovaks are being managed this year by the veteran Steve "Snag" Russell, who plans to turn out a championship team this year in the city baseball league. The Slovaks are planning to use Clifton Flats field as a home field this season.

Hickory A. C. To Meet On Sunday

All members of the Hickory A. C. will have a meeting Sunday at 5 o'clock at the Lighthouse for the purpose of signing contracts. Hickory would like a few warm-up games at home or away. For games contact Business Manager Jake Yancelli at 9210.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND
RAY ROBINSON, welterweight champion, is "round" the smaller critics picking up a couple thousand dollars in every bout which he wins with a "kay". . . Irish Jackie Hogan, Pittsburgh, did a Phil Scott in losing all the way to Floyd Whitfield, Rome, in a junior light-weight bout at Miami. . . Russell Baxter is listed against Lloyd Gibson in a preliminary on the Sarlin-Charles docket, Monday night in Pittsburgh.

Ralph Gardner is busy arranging affairs for the Johnson Bronze park. . . Adolf Lang has left for Delta, Ont., to be ready for the pickler season. . . 2,500 watched Prima Carnera down Babe Sharkey at Miami. Carnera won the first fall in 16 minutes with a series of flying mares and the second in 12 minutes with a headlock.

Charles Trippi says "football is rugged and baseball is a game for relaxation. You play best when relaxed. In football you're better when you're tightened up—at least on the first few plays, until you're hit a couple of times, then you relax." He may centerfield for the Atlanta Crackers, Southern Association. . . Bill Klem says that Nick (Red) Jones, American league umpire, is going to become one of the best umpires in the business. "We had a chance to get him in the National. I'm sorry we didn't."

Hans Wagner is quoted by Jimmy Burns as saying that "Willie Keeler is the only one I can name as Ty Cobb's equal." . . Fishing is prohibited in trout streams from 5 p. m. April 14 until 5 a. m. April 15. . . Abe Attel and Johnny Kilbane, now in the south, will meet again at Larry Atkins' party for former boxers, April 14. The ex-fighters will also be Atkins' guests following the Chuck Hunter-Larry Fontana fight, April 14, at the Cleveland Indians-White Sox game, April 15.

NEW YORK, April 12.—(Oft.)—The Olympic Games of 1948 are definitely destined at the moment to be held after all in London. . . The parade can start their intensive preparations. . . When the mid-week sports blackout recently was called in England adding further gloom to a nation hit by a coal crisis and floods there was talk that the games must be moved or cancelled.

Plans Being Made
Reports today indicate that England has completed its plans for putting on the big event with appropriate fanfare and enthusiasm.

They also have started hustling up their own athletes for the competition and have high hopes of making a creditable showing against all the other post-war difficulties which have hit the big little island. . . Invitations will go out in a few days to competing nations all over the world and after that the rush will be on in earnest. The U. S. expects to send over one of the biggest and toughest arrays of talent in history.

Do All Right
We generally do somewhat better than all right in international competition, and should be regarded as the most formidable of all the contestants. We have not only the athletes, but the food and facilities for getting them fit. This is no boast, merely a simple statement of fact at a time when a good part of the world is starving.

Perhaps all this will be changed greatly in the next few months and the other nations will come into the games a little more than a year hence as strong physically as America.

Hunt Athletes
As explained by an International News Service London correspondent the British have launched a "better British sport" campaign and an Olympic Games talent-spotting and training scheme. Other countries are expected to fall into line and come out of the ruins of the war with athletes comparable to the best who have performed in the past.

Meantime, England will get back into the international sports whirl in a big way in the next few weeks with some events that have nothing to do with the Olympic but will be headlines of major size over here.

Walker Cup Next
Nat Rogers, 20th Century Sporting Club matchmaker, is flying to London to persuade the winner into meeting Louis, after both have stated they wanted no part of the champion at this time.

The other event is the Walker Cup amateur golf competition slated at St. Andrews May 16-17. Our team will sail on April 24.

The participants also will play in the British amateur championship May 26-31.

What with one thing and another the British will be seeing American athletes in considerable numbers hereafter, and it begins to look like what some are pleased to call the good old days.

Herman Undecided About Herman At Second Base Job

COLUMBUS, O., April 12.—(INS)—The Pittsburgh Pirates came to Columbus today for a two-game exhibition series with the Columbus American Association club, with Manager Billy Herman still undecided as to what to do with himself.

Herman has been starting at second base the past few games while Eddie Basinski was in a batting slump. He intended to be at second for today's game. But with opening day only three days away, he was hoping Basinski, former Brooklyn Dodger, would get back in stride at the plate so he could take over the spot permanently.

Yesterday's exhibition with Cincinnati at Dayton was rained out, and the Pirates got some much-needed rest.

WILL SHOW SERIES
The Christopher Columbus sports committee has made arrangements to show the 1946 world series Cards vs. Red Sox pictures at the club rooms at 8 o'clock Sunday evening. The public is invited, there is no charge.

Robinson Okay In First Test

NEW YORK, April 12.—(INS)—Jackie Robinson, first negro ball player to become a major leaguer, apparently is going to get along all right in the big show.

The tall Montreal recruit's debut as a Brooklyn player passed without incident at Ebbets Field yesterday. The crowd gave him a nice reception, and his teammates treated him just as if he had been with the club for a long time.

Dodgers Thump Yanks
There was little booring of any kind by the Flatbush fans. Not even much for the hated New York Yankees, whose president, Larry MacPhail, preferred the charges that resulted in a season's suspension for Manager Leo Durocher of the Dodgers.

The Dodgers themselves, however, vented their spleen on the Yankees by burying them under an 11-run avalanche in the fifth inning and winning the game 14 to 6. Robinson went hitless, but drove in three runs with two flies and a grounder, and fielded his position at first base faultlessly.

Primo Has Had 160 Mat Bouts

Seven Foot, 270-Pounder To Match Grips With Lou Newman April 17

There have been two Italians of world-wide renown, first, Dorando who won the Olympic marathon and second, Primo Carnera, who won the world's heavyweight boxing crown but now touring the United States as a wrestler, and who grapples with Lou Newman in The Arena April 17. Carnera weighs 270 and Newman 242 pounds.

Primo, standing nearly seven feet, claims to have had 600 fights. At least, this is what he told Lew Tendler, former lightweight, in Philadelphia, several days ago. Tendler who fought a memorable, but losing bout with Benny Leonard, only had 167.

Primo is said to show none of the effects of his fistie brawling, and due to constant wrestling, is always in tiptop shape. Since coming to the United States, a second time, he has wrestled more than 160 times, but expects a stiff exhibition from Newman here next Tuesday night.

Wampum Will Fete Basketball Squad

Wampum high school's basketball squad, which captured the Section 21 championship, and went to the finals of the WPAL play-offs, will be feted at a testimonial banquet to be held April 24 in the Presbyterian church.

Mrs. A. Miles, head of the committee in charge, stated today that Harold V. Cohen, Pittsburgh drama critic, and Wampum high alumnus, has been secured as the main speaker.

Date for the sale of tickets will be announced later.

WEST SIDE TIGERS

Manager Len Gilbert would like to have all West Side Tigers players at the Lee avenue field at 2 o'clock Sunday for a workout. All of the 1946 players and any others interested.

EAST BROOK MEETING
All members of the East Brook baseball team are urged to attend a workout at the East Brook High field at 2 o'clock Sunday.

Glenn Hawthorne, Silgo war veteran, is fifth Penn Stater to own a national collegiate boxing title. Davey Stoop and Al Lewis were the first Lion entries to win titles in 1932, followed by Frankie Goodman in 1936 and Paul Scally in 1941.

Sarlin Confident Of Winning Battle With Ezzard Charles

Pittsburgher Thinks He Has Style To Bother Heavy Punching Charles

PITTSBURGH, April 12.—(INS)—Ervin (Butcher Boy) Sarlin Friday wound up a heavy training schedule for next Monday's 10-round bout in Pittsburgh with Ezzard Charles, and then announced he was ready to turn in an upset.

Sarlin worked six rounds with two sparmates and appeared sharper than at any time since his discharge from the army less than a year ago. He planned a light workout today to taper off, and said he would enter the ring at about 183 pounds.

Sarlin Confident
The stocky slugger oozed confidence as he looked forward to meeting the outstanding contender for the world's light-heavyweight crown. "I have just the style to beat him. I'll work on him inside like he's never been worked on, and will stay so close he won't have a chance to get a shot at me."

Reminded that Charles knocked out Jimmy Blinn at Cleveland with a short punch, Sarlin said: "Just remember this: I've never been knocked off my feet and I've taken some good ones from Lee Savoid, Pat Comiskey and others."

Nobody Wants Brooklyn Job

NEW YORK, April 21.—(INS)—Apparently hardly any leading candidate wants Leo Durocher's job of managing the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Joe McCarthy, former pilot of the New York Yankees and Chicago Cubs, sent word from Buffalo that he was through with baseball. Bill McKelvie, former Cincinnati manager and present Cleveland coach, said he wasn't interested, thus echoing the statements of Ray Blades and Clyde Sukeforth, Brooklyn coaches. Bill Terry, former manager of the New York Giants, denied he had been offered the job.

Joe Rodjom Named As W. & J. Captain

WASHINGTON, Pa., April 12.—(INS)—Joe Rodjom, who played end last fall on the Presidents' first football club at Washington & Jefferson next autumn.

Rodjom, who played three years at Donora high school. Football Coach Henry Leucht expects to meet a squad of 50 candidates at next Thursday's first spring outdoor practice session.

HORNETS FIGHTING MAD
PITTSBURGH, April 12.—(INS)—The Pittsburgh Hornets today were determined to end the Calder cup series for the American Hockey league championship tonight when they meet the Hershey Bears in Pittsburgh. The Hornets don't want to go back to Hershey for another game in the best four-of-seven series.

DOG SHOW ENTRY HEAVY
PITTSBURGH, April 12.—(INS)—The eighth annual West Penn Kennel Association show opened Friday in Pittsburgh with a record entry of 831 dogs.

Jersey Telephone Strikers Ignore Efforts Of State

Despite Swift Action To Enforce Severe Law, 4,600 More Remain Off Jobs

NEWARK, N. J., April 12.—(INS)—Striking New Jersey telephone operators remained away from their jobs again today and were joined by 4,600 telephone maintenance men despite a state effort to force them to return to work under the terms of a new anti-utility strike law.

The state moved quickly to enforce a law passed three days ago providing a 30 days jail sentence and personal fines of $500 against all utility strikes. Attorney General Walter D. Van Riper filed civil action under the new law asking that the Telephone Operators union be fined $10,000.

Van Riper also warned the strikers that picketing of the telephone exchanges in New Jersey was illegal as they had been "seized" by the state. Local authorities remained un-cooperative and picketing continued.

The only arrests made were those of three union leaders, Miss Elizabeth Ryan, Mrs. Virginia Wiggleworth and Mrs. Mary Hanson. They were released under $500 bond.

Mrs. Hanson and Mrs. Wiggleworth will get a further hearing Monday but Judge Richard A. Hartshorne granted Miss Ryan a delay until April 21. Miss Ryan will marry Pasquale S. Iliciano, a war veteran Sunday.

Report Is Heard Three Americans Executed In China

LONDON, April 12.—(INS)—An unconfirmed Nanking dispatch to Reuters today said that three United States citizens and one other foreigner were executed two weeks ago by Chinese Communists.

The unconfirmed report said Communist troops accused the four of being Chinese Nationalist spies and killed them on April 1 at Waoyaopu, forty-seven miles north of Yenan.

Chinese Communist forces were said to have withdrawn from the area immediately after the execution.

Victor M. Gardner With 24th Division On Kyushu Island

WITH THE EIGHTH ARMY IN JAPAN, April 12.—Private Victor M. Gardner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julian A. Gardner of R. D. 4, New Castle, was recently assigned to the 21st Infantry regiment, a unit of the 24th Infantry division. The 24th division is occupying the island of Kyushu, southernmost of the Japanese home islands.

Gardner entered the army in September 1946 at New Castle. After basic training at Fort Bliss, Texas, he was transferred to Camp Stoneman, Calif., for assignment to duty in Japan.

Upon his arrival at the 24th division, Gardner found many improvement projects under construction. In an effort to make life overseas equal to that of soldiers stationed in the United States, the "Victory" division has furnished its men with modern living quarters and the best recreational facilities available.

Plan To Build At Court House

More Office Space To Be Provided For Register And Recorder

OTHER NEWS OF COURT HOUSE

Plans are well under way for the addition to the court house which will provide additional space for the office of the Register and Recorder. Architect William I. Clark conferred with the county commissioners on Friday upon some points of the proposed addition among which was the question of removing the small building between the court house and annex which is used for a small office and was once a wash house.

If the small house can be saved without impeding the work of the addition it probably will be done. The need for more space for records in the office of Register and Recorder Orville Potter has been pressing for several years. By now it is almost completely filled and the addition is absolutely necessary.

Little Contagion In Seventh Ward

School Principal At Mahoning Reports Boys, Girls Of School In Healthy Condition

Fred McLure, principal of the Seventh Ward grade and high school, reported Friday, that the school boasts one of the best health records in the city, as far as contagious diseases are concerned with none of the students out of school by reason of quarantine.

Just prior to the Easter vacation, Mr. McLure reported, there were two cases of measles and two of mumps, but the Easter vacation cleared the situation up and with the opening of school last Monday, the quarantined students were back in their classes, giving the school a clear record.

An interesting demonstration has just been given in the school, by Coach William Douglass of the New Castle High school, when he brought his basketball team to the Seventh Ward for a clinic demonstration. The team was well received by the school group that witnessed the boys in action.

Rees Flannery, athletic director of the school, is busy training the track team on the small field adjacent to the school. Quite a large number of boys have turned out for track.

A number of outstanding events have been planned for the enjoyment of the pupils of the school. On next Thursday, Mrs. Gladys Pollen, music instructor will present an instrumental recital, when many of the music students will participate. Friday morning, Robert Duff and the a cappella choir of Senior High school will be at the school for a concert, while on Tuesday, April 22, Joseph Replogle and the high school wind and string group will give a concert.

Optimists Hear Of Recreational Work At Meeting

Optimist club of New Castle, at their regular meeting this week, heard a talk on recreational work in the community by Art Alexander, and were shown movies of activities at the playgrounds by Harold Book.

Wednesday, April 16, the members and their wives will motor to Sharon for the installation of officers—this ceremony to be held in conjunction with the Sharon chapter.

Oto Pearsall, boys' work chairman, announced that the club will sponsor a marble tournament at the close of the school term, the play-offs to be held at various playgrounds about the city and the finals to be held in a central location. Rules of the tournament will be approved later.

HOMING PIGEONS GIVE PHONE STRIKE 'THE BIRD'

IN THE TELEPHONE STRIKE crisis, Arthur Wheatley, of Rockaway Valley, N. J., finds that a bird in the hand is worth ten long distance calls that can't be made. President of the International Homing Pigeon Fanciers Society, Wheatley (left), a New York sales executive, leaves his home taking some of his birds with him. Intending to let the little woman know that he wants the bathroom painted blue, Wheatley (center) writes a note and sends it by pigeon. At right Mrs. Wheatley gets the message. (International)

Around Hollywood

By JOHN TODD

International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, April 12.—(INS)—Burt Lancaster, a complete unknown a year ago, finally gets a vacation after four straight starring roles in a row. It's a good one, too. He'll have almost two months off.

Burt finishes up next week in "brute force" for Mark Hellinger who lifted him to overnight fame in "The Killers".

"It's been great, but a vacation will be welcome," Burt said. He goes first to New York City for the marriage of his sister.

He's not due to start his next picture, "White Swamp" for RKO, till mid-June. That'll probably be made in Florida. Just to show you how hot an actor can become in a few months, Burt didn't have to take a vacation. He could have kept right on working. Universal-International wanted him to co-star with Joan Fontaine in "Thunder On The Hill", starting shortly.

Taylor Is Ready

Just as anxious to get back to work as Burt is to have a vacation is Robert Taylor. There's talk at M-G-M that he may play the sports writer in "This Is Love", which is a sports story despite the romantic title. It's being written by Bob Considine and Commander Frank Wead. Taylor has been anxious to get a good story. He's made only one picture since he was discharged from the navy 18 months ago.

"It's said over at RKO that Robert Young probably will play the American flyer in "The White Tower", which will be filmed next summer in Switzerland. Your reporter sure would like to visit that location.

Universal has changed the title of Deanna Durbin's new picture to "Something In The Wind", which is the title of one of her songs in the picture. The studio bosses figure the song will be one of the 1947 hits and they want to make the most of the title. The picture originally was called "For The Love Of Mary". Deanna looks cute with her short bob.

Slippery Rock District Report

Slippery Rock District had three Sunday schools entered in the Pre-Easter increase campaign that ended Easter Sunday, and these were the Greenwood Methodist, Mt. Hermon Presbyterian and Neshannock United Presbyterian. All three did remarkably well and accumulated a good number of points and high percentages. The Greenwood Methodist was the winner with the other two nearly tied for second place, the Mt. Hermon Presbyterian having a slight edge over the Neshannock U. P.

Below are the Easter attendances, total points and total percentages, in order:
Greenwood Methodist, 79, 79, 1295;
Mt. Hermon Presbyterian, 55, 30, 625 and Neshannock U. P., 59, 27, 614.

Court Of Awards For Mt. Jackson Girl Scout Troop

Mt. Jackson Girl Scouts Troop 39 had a Court of Awards in the high school Wednesday evening before a large audience.

Opening the program was the presentation of colors with Sara Jane Reed as bearer of the American flag and Harriet Shearer as guard. Presentation of the first troop flag followed with the dedication ceremony written by Mildred Bradley. Bearers were Thelma McCurley and Shirley Fullerton, the flag being a gift from their grandmother, Mrs. A. H. Fullerton and given in her behalf. Mrs. C. A. Shumaker, troop leader received the flag.

An investiture of Janet Davis as a tenderfoot scout and ten girls received their second class badges were also part of the opening exercises.

Introductions were made of guests and scout leaders and Mrs. Paul Forcey, Girl Scout executive, who made the presentations of the badges.

Miss Agnes Peebles was narrator and gave a pantomime of each badge with a review given by Mrs. John McKee. Nineteen badges were received and taps closed the meeting.

Members of the North Beaver Garden club, who sponsor the troop, were present as special guests. Tea was served with Mrs. A. H. Fullerton and Mrs. Paul Forcey pouring.
